Background Statement

This Application is submitted by Clearfield County Grange Mutual Fire Insurance Company (“Clearfield Mutual” or the “Applicant”), whose statutory home office and main administrative office is located at 1214 South Second Street, Suite D, Clearfield, PA 16830. The NAIC number of Clearfield Mutual is 16969.

Clearfield Mutual proposes to reorganize itself by becoming a wholly-owned stock insurance company subsidiary of a newly-formed mutual holding company. This reorganization would be pursuant to the provisions the Pennsylvania Insurance Company Mutual-to-Stock Conversion Act, 40 P.S. § 911-A et seq. (the “Conversion Law”), and would involve the following principal steps:

- (a) The Applicant will form a mutual insurance holding company to be named Community Holdings Management Inc. (the “Mutual Holding Company”).
- (b) The Applicant will convert from an incorporated mutual insurance company into an incorporated stock insurance company.
- (c) The converted stock insurance company will issue shares of its common stock to the Mutual Holding Company, making the insurance company a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Mutual Holding Company.

(All of the foregoing actions, as further described in this Application, constitute the “Conversion.”)

The Board of Directors of Clearfield Mutual believes the Conversion is in the best interests of Clearfield Mutual and that it is fair and equitable to Clearfield Mutual’s members. At a meeting duly called and held on April 22, 2016 (the “Adoption Date”), the Board of Directors of Clearfield Mutual unanimously approved the Conversion and adopted a Plan of Conversion from Mutual to Stock Organization and Formation of Mutual Holding Company (the “Plan”).

Description of the Proposed Conversion

Conversion of Clearfield Mutual from Mutual to Stock Form

Clearfield Mutual will convert from mutual to stock form by means of an amendment to its Articles of Incorporation, to be filed at the closing of the Conversion. The new stock insurance company will be named “Clearfield County Insurance Company.” For purposes of this Application, Clearfield County Insurance Company, as converted to stock form, is sometimes referred to as the “Stock Company.”

Formation of a Mutual Holding Company

Under the Plan, the Applicant will create a new Mutual Holding Company, which will be a Pennsylvania non-stock corporation called Community Holdings Management Inc. The Mutual Holding Company will be the company through which the policyholders of Clearfield County Insurance Company hold membership interests and the right to vote after the completion of the Conversion.

Related Conversion and Merger - Mutual Insurance Company of Lehigh County

Concurrently with Clearfield Mutual's adoption of its Plan, The Mutual Insurance Company of Lehigh County, a Pennsylvania mutual insurance company ("Lehigh Mutual"), also adopted a similar plan of conversion (the "Lehigh Plan"). Under the Lehigh Plan, Lehigh Mutual will convert from a Pennsylvania mutual insurance company to a Pennsylvania stock insurance company and issue shares of its common stock to Community Holdings Management Inc. (the same Mutual Holding Company as for Clearfield).

Concurrently with the filing of this Application, Lehigh Mutual will be filing its application for approval of the Lehigh Plan with the Department.

In addition to becoming part of the new Mutual Holding Company structure, the respective boards of Clearfield Mutual and Lehigh Mutual determined it would be in the best interests of those insurance companies and their policyholders to combine into a single insurance company. Both insurers on a stand-alone basis are small, with Clearfield Mutual having $1,421,765 and Lehigh Mutual having $2,162,878 in gross written premiums in 2015. By combining into a single insurance company, the companies can reduce certain operating costs, enhance their strategic and financial flexibility, and increase their competitive position in a manner that furthers the interests of both companies and their Members.

Therefore, Clearfield Mutual and Lehigh Mutual have entered into a merger agreement (the "Merger Agreement") pursuant to which after completion of their respective conversions Clearfield County Insurance Company (as-converted) will merge with and into Lehigh County Insurance Company (as-converted), with Lehigh County Insurance Company surviving the merger (the "Merger"). The resulting corporation will be renamed "Community Insurance Company."

Under the Merger Agreement, the parties will form an intermediate holding company to be named Charter Lane Holdings LLC (the "Intermediate Holding Company"). As part of the Merger, the Mutual Holding Company first would contribute to the Intermediate Holding Company the shares of common stock of each of the converted stock insurance companies. Then the converted stock insurance companies will merge to form Community Insurance Company.

If the policyholders of Lehigh Mutual do not approve the conversion of Lehigh Mutual, but the policyholders of Clearfield Mutual approve the conversion of Clearfield Mutual, then Clearfield Mutual will convert into stock form and become a subsidiary of the Mutual Holding Company.

The Applicant hereby specifically requests approval of the Merger with Lehigh County Insurance Company as part of the Plan, including the formation of the Intermediate Holding Company; however, in the alternative, the Applicant seeks approval of the Conversion on a stand-alone basis in the event that the Lehigh Plan does not proceed forward.

A diagram showing the post-Conversion relationship among the companies is attached as Exhibit I. Exhibit I depicts the resulting structure assuming the Merger and formation of the Intermediate Holding Company is consummated, and, in the alternative, the resulting structure if only the Conversion of Clearfield Mutual is consummated.

Corporate Governance

As a result of the Conversion, the policyholders of Clearfield Insurance Company will continue to control the company by virtue of their membership in the Mutual Holding Company, coupled with the fact that the Mutual Holding Company will own all the outstanding common stock of the converted Stock Company.

The proposed forms of the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Clearfield County Insurance Company and of Community Holdings Management Inc. accompany this Application, and are identified below under “Submission of Required Documents.”

The Boards of Directors and Board of Managers will be constituted in the following manner:

- The Mutual Holding Company: Initially, the current Board of Directors of Clearfield Mutual will become the Board of Directors of Community Holdings Management Inc. Thereafter, that board will be elected by the members of the Mutual Holding Company.
- The Insurance Company: Initially, the current Board of Directors of Clearfield Mutual will become the Board of Directors Clearfield County Insurance Company (the converted Stock Company). Thereafter, that board will be elected annually by its sole shareholder, Community Holdings Management Inc.
- The Intermediate Holding Company: Initially, the Board of Managers of the Intermediate Holding Company will consist of the same persons as the Board of Directors of the Mutual Holding Company. Thereafter, the Board of Managers will be elected by the members of the Intermediate Holding Company, which will be the Mutual Holding Company as the sole member, unless and until changed in the future.

However, assuming the policyholders of Lehigh Mutual approve the Lehigh Plan, and Clearfield County Insurance Company is merged into Lehigh County Insurance Company, the Board of Directors of Lehigh County Insurance Company will become the board of Community Insurance Company (the resulting combined insurance company).

Additional detail on the individuals expected to serve on the Boards of Directors and as the principal officers of the entities involved in these transactions is found at Exhibit VII.

Acquisition of Control Statement

Community Holdings Management Inc., as the new Mutual Holding Company, will constitute the Ultimate Control Person of Clearfield County Insurance Company upon the closing of the Conversion. Every policyholder of Clearfield County Insurance Company will be a member of Community Holdings Management Inc., and therefore no person will hold greater than ten percent (10%) of the voting power of Community Holdings Management Inc.

When Community Holdings Management Inc. is incorporated and organized, it will file an acquisition of control statement on Form A and related Form E in accordance with the Conversion Law.

Effect of the Conversion and Business Plan

In general, the proposed Conversion will cause no changes to the operations of Clearfield Mutual. Only the corporate organization matters discussed in this Application will change.

The Merger will, however result in certain changes to operations. A business plan and pro forma financial statement will be filed as part of the Form A referenced in the preceding section.

Submission of Required Documents

In accordance with the provisions of the Conversion Law, we are enclosing for filing the following documents:

Exhibit I – Exhibit I is a diagram depicting the holding company structure.

Exhibit III - Proxy Materials: Contains the form of notice of the policyholders meeting of Clearfield, and the form of proxy to be solicited from eligible members of Clearfield.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY GRANGE MUTUAL FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY

Adopted April 22, 2016

I. Background and Business Purpose

On April 22, 2016, the Board of Directors of Clearfield County Grange Mutual Fire Insurance Company (“Clearfield” or the “Company”), after careful study and consideration, adopted by unanimous vote this Plan of Conversion from Mutual to Stock Organization and Formation of Mutual Holding Company (the “Plan”). Under this Plan, as of the Effective Date, Clearfield will convert from a Pennsylvania mutual insurance company to a Pennsylvania stock insurance company (the “Conversion”) pursuant to the alternative plan provisions of the Insurance Company Mutual-to-Stock Conversion Act, 40 P.S. Sections 911-A, et seq. (“Act”) as follows: (i) Clearfield will convert from mutual to stock form and issue 30,000 shares of Clearfield common stock to Community Holdings Management Inc., a newly formed Pennsylvania nonstock corporation (the “Holding Company”), and (ii) Members will become members of the Holding Company. Concurrently with adoption of this Plan, Mutual Insurance Company of Lehigh County, a Pennsylvania mutual insurance company (“Lehigh”), is adopting a plan of conversion pursuant to which Lehigh will convert from a Pennsylvania mutual insurance company to a Pennsylvania stock insurance company and issue shares of its common stock to the Holding Company. Clearfield and Lehigh have entered into a merger agreement (the “Merger Agreement”) pursuant to which after completion of their respective conversions Clearfield will merge with and into Lehigh, with Lehigh surviving the merger (the “Merger”).

The Board has determined that the Conversion and the Merger will enhance Clearfield’s strategic and financial flexibility and increase its competitive position in a manner that furthers the interests of Clearfield and its Members. The Board has determined that the Conversion and the Merger are in the best interest of Clearfield. As converted, Clearfield is sometimes hereinafter referred to as the “Converted Company.” The transactions contemplated by the Plan and the Merger Agreement are sometimes hereinafter referred to as the “Conversion and Merger”.

Under this Plan, upon the effective date of the Conversion, the Converted Company will issue 30,000 shares of the Converted Company’s capital stock, $5.00 par value (the “Conversion Stock”), to the Holding Company. Members will exchange their rights as mutual members of Clearfield for membership interests in the Holding Company and as a result of such exchange, their rights as members of Clearfield will be fully satisfied, discharged and extinguished.

The Conversion is subject to provisions of the Act and the policies of the Pennsylvania Insurance Department (“Department”). This Plan is subject to the prior written approval of the Department. The Plan also must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of Eligible Members of Clearfield called for the purpose of considering and voting upon the Plan.

Charter Lane Holdings will become the wholly owned subsidiary of Community Holdings Management Inc., a Pennsylvania mutual holding company incorporated at the direction of the Company and The Mutual Insurance Company of Lehigh County (“Lehigh”). Your existing membership interest in the Company will be exchanged for a membership interest in the mutual holding company, and your rights as a member of the Company will be extinguished. No shares of stock of the Company are being issued to policyholders or the public in connection with the conversion. All of the shares of the Company will be held by Charter Lane Holdings as the intermediate holding company. Community Holdings Management Inc. will be the ultimate parent of the Company and Charter Lane Holdings.

Contemporaneously with the conversion of the Company, Lehigh will also convert from a mutual insurance company to a stock insurance company and become a wholly owned subsidiary of Community Holdings Management Inc. Shortly thereafter, the Company will merge with and into Lehigh, with Lehigh as the surviving corporation (the “Merger”), and Lehigh will change its name to Community Insurance Company. A chart setting forth our corporate structure after the transactions is set forth on page 4 of the enclosed proxy statement.

The conversion will not have any effect on your insurance coverage or your premium. However, you will no longer have a membership interest in the Company following the conversion. Instead, you will have a membership interest in the new mutual holding company, Community Holdings Management Inc., which will be the ultimate parent company in the new corporate structure following the conversion of the Company and its merger with Lehigh.

The Plan must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a special meeting of the voting members of the Company to be held at our offices at 1214 South Second Street, Clearfield, Pennsylvania, on _____, 2016, at ____:00 a.m. As defined in the Plan, a voting member of the Company is a named insured who held a policy in force as of April 22, 2016, the date the Plan was adopted. The notice of our special meeting, a proxy card, a self-addressed, stamped envelope, and a proxy statement are enclosed with this letter.

The Board of Directors recommends a vote “FOR” approval of the Plan and a vote “FOR” approval of the related Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Company.

Sincerely,

Any member giving a proxy will have the right to revoke his or her proxy at any time before it is voted by delivering written notice or a duly executed proxy bearing a later date to the Secretary of the Company, or by attending the Special Meeting and voting in person.

In the event there is more than one named insured under an insurance policy, the signature of only one of such policyholders is required on the proxy in order for the vote under such policy to be counted. DESCRIPTION OF THE PLAN OF CONVERSION

General

The Board of Directors of the Company adopted the Plan of Conversion on April 22, 2016. The Plan provides as follows: (i) the Company will form Community Holdings Management Inc. to act as a mutual insurance holding company; (ii) the Company will convert from a Pennsylvania-chartered mutual insurance company to a Pennsylvania-chartered stock insurance company by amending its Articles of Incorporation to authorize the issuance of capital stock and to comply with the requirements of a Pennsylvania stock corporation; (iii) Lehigh will convert from a Pennsylvania-chartered mutual insurance company to a Pennsylvania-chartered stock insurance company by amending its Articles of Incorporation to authorize the issuance of capital stock and to comply with the requirements of a Pennsylvania stock corporation; (iv) Lehigh and the Company will each issue all of their outstanding shares of capital stock to Community Holdings Management Inc., which will then contribute all of such shares to Charter Lane Holdings; and (v) the Company will merge with and into Lehigh, with Lehigh as the surviving corporation, and Lehigh will change its name to Community Insurance Company.

In connection with the conversion, the members of the Company, who consist of the policyholders of the Company, will become members of Community Holdings Management Inc., and their membership interests in the Company will be extinguished. Each policyholder's membership interest in Community Holdings Management Inc. will continue so long as such policyholder has an insurance policy with Community Insurance Company. The membership interest will entitle the policyholder to vote for members of the Board of Directors of, and vote on certain transactions proposed by, Community Holdings Management Inc.

The conversion is contingent upon approval of the Plan by (i) the Insurance Department and (ii) the Eligible Members of the Company at the Special Meeting. The Insurance Department approved the Plan on _____, 2016. Insurance Department approval does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of the Plan. The merger of the Company and Lehigh is contingent upon approval of the plan of conversion adopted by Lehigh by the eligible members of Lehigh at a special meeting of its members to be held on ____, 2016.

Background and Reasons for the Conversion

The strength and stability of the Company is our top priority. The Board of Directors adopted the Plan of Conversion because it believes that the new corporate structure provided by the conversion and the merger with Lehigh will provide Community Insurance Company with greater strategic and financial flexibility that will benefit the Company's policyholders in the future. The new mutual holding company structure will permit the combined insurance companies to more efficiently use their combined capital. The new corporate structure will also enable Community Holdings Management Inc. to engage in acquisitions of and mergers with both stock and mutual insurance companies and insurance agencies. In addition, the new mutual holding company structure will permit Community Holdings Management Inc. to access the capital markets through the sale of limited liability company interests in Charter Lane Holdings. Because Community Insurance Company will be adequately capitalized upon completion of the proposed transactions, there are no current plans to enter the capital markets or to acquire or merge with other companies at this time.

Access to Capital Markets. Although Community Insurance Company will be well-capitalized and there is no need or plans to raise additional capital, Community Holdings Management Inc. would have the ability to do so by selling limited liability company interests in Charter Lane Holdings to the public without obtaining member approval. In such event, the policyholders could be granted first priority subscription rights to purchase such interests in Charter Lane Holdings, but Community Holdings Management Inc. would not be required to do so.

Financial Impact. The conversion will not have a material impact on the financial statements of the combined insurance companies. The only asset of Community Holdings Management Inc. will be the stock of Community Insurance Company and the limited liability company interests of Charter Lane Holdings. None of these transactions will have a material impact on financial performance of the combined insurance business of the Company and Lehigh.

Alternative Methods of Conversion. The transaction we are asking you to approve involves the conversion of the Company from mutual to stock form and the formation of a mutual holding company that will hold all of the converted company's outstanding stock. No stock of the converted company will be offered to the public in connection with the proposed conversion. There are two other methods of conversion contemplated by the Mutual-to-Stock Conversion Act that involve the conversion of a mutual insurer accompanied by a stock offering. In the first method of conversion, known as the subscription rights model, a mutual insurance company converts to a stock company and offers its stock for sale to policyholders, and, if necessary, the public. In the second method of conversion, known as the distribution rights model, a mutual insurance company converts to a stock company and policyholders receive stock representing equity in the converted company in return for no consideration. The method of allocating stock in a distribution rights conversion can vary, but is typically based on complex actuarial analysis relating to each policyholder's contribution to surplus. A distribution rights conversion is also generally accompanied by a public offering.

The Company has elected not to incur the expense or expend the time associated with conducting a conversion accompanied by a stock offering for the following reasons.

First, one of the primary reasons a mutual insurer conducts a demutualization accompanied by a stock offering is to raise capital. The Company is well capitalized and does not need to raise additional capital.

Second, each of the above alternative methods of conversion would require the Company to spend considerable time and money complying with federal and state securities laws in connection with the issuance of shares of stock to the public. Additionally, once the Company issued stock, it would become a public company and would be subject to ongoing public company reporting and disclosure obligations. One of the primary reasons why companies go public and subject themselves to burdensome public reporting obligations is to raise additional needed capital. As noted above, the Company does not need to raise additional capital at this time and has no interest in becoming a public company. The distribution rights model outlined above is even less appealing in this regard, because it involves distributing equity in the converted company in return for no consideration. In other words, the Company would be burdened with all the costs of being a public company and yet derive none of the benefits of increased capital.

Effects on Policyholders of the Company

General. Each policyholder in a mutual insurance company, such as the Company, has certain interests in the insurance company issuing the policy, including the contractual right to insurance coverage, the right to vote for the election of Directors and certain other corporate transactions, and the right to receive dividends if, as and when declared by the Board of Directors of the Company.

A policyholder of a mutual insurance company must have an effective insurance policy issued by that mutual company in order to be a member of that company. However, this membership interest has no market value because it cannot be separated from the underlying policy and, in any event, is not transferable. A policyholder whose policy is cancelled, terminated or otherwise not renewed loses the membership interest. As of the completion of the conversion, all policyholder membership interests in the Company will terminate, except the policyholders' contract rights under their policies of insurance. Policyholders of the Company, at the effective time of the conversion, will receive a membership interest in Community Holdings Management Inc., which is described in further detail below under "Voting Rights."

Each insurance policy issued by the Company and in force on the date the Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation of the Company are filed in the office of Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania will remain in force as a policy issued by the Company in accordance with the terms of such policy, except that, as of such date: (i) all voting rights with respect to the Company (if any) of the holder of such policy will terminate and such holder will receive similar voting rights with respect to Community Holdings Management Inc., and (ii) all rights of the holder of such policy to share in the surplus of such converted company (if any) will be extinguished.

If the Plan of Conversion does not receive the requisite approval of the Company's Eligible Members, or if the conversion fails to be completed for any other reason, the Company will continue as a mutual insurance company. In this case, Eligible Members will retain the rights described above.

Continuity of Insurance Coverage and Business Operations. The conversion will not change the insurance protection or premiums under individual insurance policies with the Company. During the conversion, the normal business of the Company of issuing insurance policies and processing and paying claims will continue without change or interruption. Following the conversion and the merger with Lehigh, Community Insurance Company will continue to provide services for policyholders under current policies.

The Board of Directors serving the Company at the time of the conversion will serve as the Board of Directors of Charter Lane Holdings and Community Holdings Management, Inc. after the conversion. The Board of Directors of Charter Lane Holdings and Community Holdings Management Inc. will consist of the following persons, each of whom is an existing director of the Company: James J. Gardner, Mark R. Werkley, Mark J. Keyser, Randall L. Guthrie, Richard E. Bauer, Michael A. Yeager, Matthew A. Schnader, Brian K. Bolinger, and Robert E. Myers, Jr.

Voting Rights. As a result of the conversion, the voting rights of all policyholders in the Company will cease, but policyholders will have voting rights in the new mutual holding company. Policyholders will have no right to elect the Directors of Community Insurance Company or approve transactions involving Community Insurance Company. Instead, voting rights in Community Insurance Company will be held by Charter Lane Holdings, which will own all the capital stock of Community Insurance Company. Voting rights in Charter Lane Holdings will be held by Community Holdings Management Inc. Each policyholder of the Company will receive a membership interest, which includes voting rights, in Community Holdings Management Inc. These voting rights will include the right to elect the Directors of Community Holdings Management Inc. and to approve certain transactions involving Community Holdings Management Inc.

Dividends. The conversion will not affect the reasonable expectation of a policyholder to receive dividends from the Company. Mutual insurance companies may pay two types of dividends. The first type is a dividend paid to all policyholders as members of the mutual company, if and when, declared by the Board of Directors and paid. We refer to this type of dividend herein as a “member dividend.” The Company has not declared or paid a dividend of this type to its policyholders. The second type of dividend is paid to policyholders pursuant to the terms of their policy with the Company. These policies are often referred to as participating policies. The Company has not issued and will not issue any participating policies.

After the conversion, because policyholders will not be members of Community Insurance Company, policyholders will no longer have rights to member dividends from Community Insurance Company. However, as members of Community Holdings Management Inc., policyholders of Community Insurance Company may receive dividends from Community Holdings Management Inc. as members thereof. The payment of member dividends by Community Holdings Management Inc. will occur only if, as and when declared by its Board of Directors. Because Community Holdings Management Inc. has no other business operations other than acting as a holding company, its ability to pay dividends to members may depend upon the dividends it receives, if any, from Community Insurance Company. The payment of dividends by Community Insurance Company is subject to the review and approval of the Insurance Department.

Rights upon Dissolution. Mutual policyholders also may have rights in the unlikely event of a solvent dissolution of a mutual insurance company. Under Pennsylvania law, it is unclear how mutual policyholders are treated in this case. One provision of Pennsylvania law applies to all nonstock corporations. Under this provision, unless otherwise provided in the articles, bylaws or the documents evidencing membership in the nonstock corporation, upon a solvent dissolution, members have the right to receive a pro rata distribution of any surplus remaining after the satisfaction of all claims and other liabilities of the company. However, a more recent provision of Pennsylvania law, specifically applicable to mutual insurance companies, states that any surplus of a mutual insurance company remaining after satisfaction of all claims and liabilities escheats to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. See 15 P.S. § 21205. In the view of the Insurance Department, the more recent statute is controlling.

Potential Conflict of Interest

As noted above, Community Insurance Company will be adequately capitalized and has no need or plans to raise additional capital. However, if Community Holdings Management Inc. decided to raise capital by selling limited liability company interests in Charter Lane Holdings, the interests of the policyholders of the insurance company (who will also be members of Community Holdings Management Inc.) might conflict with the interests of the holders of interests in Charter Lane Holdings, as the owner of the insurance company, on issues such as the payment of claims, investment policies, general management of our business and dividend policy. Accordingly, if we were to ever effect a minority offering of interests in Charter Lane Holdings, we would establish separate Boards of Directors for Charter Lane Holdings and Community Holdings Management Inc., and the respective Boards of Directors would consider these differing interests and resolve these conflicts as they arise.

Future Conversion of Mutual Holding Company

Following the conversion, Community Holdings Management Inc. could, at some point in the future, convert from mutual to stock form, a transaction that is sometimes referred to as a “full conversion.” Unlike a minority offering of interests in Charter Lane Holdings, a full conversion would involve the full conversion of Community Holdings Management Inc. from mutual to stock form and a related stock offering, and there would be no mutual membership rights following the full conversion. Accordingly, in order to effect a full conversion, Community Holdings Management Inc. would have to obtain the affirmative vote of a majority of votes cast by members eligible to vote on such transaction in accordance with Pennsylvania law and the company's bylaws.

Tax Effects of Conversion

The following discussion addresses the material United States federal income tax consequences to: (i) the Company as a result of the conversion of the Company from mutual to stock form; and (ii) an Eligible Member that is a U.S. Person, as defined below, that holds membership rights in the Company as a capital asset on the effective date of the conversion, as a result of the termination of such Eligible Member's voting rights in, and rights to share in the surplus of, the Company, and the acquisition by such Eligible Member of membership rights in Community Holdings Management Inc.

The following discussion is based, primarily, on the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, which we refer to as "the Code," Treasury regulations promulgated under the Code, judicial authorities, published positions of the Internal Revenue Service and other applicable authorities, all as in effect on the date of this discussion and all of which are subject to change (possibly with retroactive effect) and to differing interpretations. No assurance can be given that the Internal Revenue Service will not assert, or that a court will not sustain, a position contrary to any of the conclusions set forth in this discussion. A change in the authorities upon which the following discussion is based could affect our conclusions. With respect to those issues on which there is no direct published authority, we have reached our conclusions based on analogy to and reasoning from analogous provisions of the Code, authorities interpreting the Code, and certain published private letter rulings, which do not have the force of law and may not be used or cited as authority or precedent. Given the absence of direct authority regarding the characterization and tax effects of the termination of Eligible Members' voting rights in, and rights to share in the surplus of, the Company, and the acquisition by such Eligible Members of membership rights in Community Holdings Management Inc., there exists some risk on those issues that cannot be discounted with certainty.

The following discussion is directed solely to Eligible Members that are U.S. Persons that hold membership rights in the Company as a capital asset within the meaning of Section 1221 of the Code on the effective date of the conversion, and it does not purport to address all of the United States federal income tax consequences that may be applicable to the Company or to the individual circumstances of particular categories of Eligible Members in light of their specific circumstances. In addition, the following discussion does not address aspects of United States federal income taxation that may be applicable to Eligible Members subject to special treatment under the Code, such as financial institutions, insurance companies, pass-through entities, regulated investment companies, real estate investment trusts, financial asset securitization investment trusts, dealers or traders in securities or tax-exempt organizations, or any aspect of the U.S. alternative minimum tax or state, local or foreign tax consequences of the proposed transactions.

For purposes of this discussion, the term "U.S. Person" means (i) a citizen or resident of the United States, (ii) a corporation, or entity treated as a corporation, created or organized in or under the laws of the United States or any political subdivision thereof, (iii) an estate, the income of which is subject to United States federal income taxation regardless of its source, (iv) a trust, if either (A) a court within the United States is able to exercise primary supervision over the administration of such trust and one or more U.S. Persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of such trust, or (B) the trust has a valid election in effect to be treated as a U.S. Person for United States federal income tax purposes, or (v) any other person or entity that is treated for United States federal income tax purposes as if it were one of the foregoing.

This discussion does not consider the tax treatment of partnerships (including entities treated as partnerships for U.S. federal tax purposes) or other pass-through entities or persons who hold membership rights in the Company through such entities. The tax treatment of a partnership and each partner thereof generally will depend upon the status and activities of the partnership and such partner. If you are a partner of a partnership that is an Eligible Member, you should consult your tax advisors.

This discussion does not constitute tax advice and is not intended to be a substitute for careful tax planning. Each Eligible Member and other taxpayer is urged to consult its own tax advisor with respect to the U.S. federal, state, local and non-U.S. income and other tax consequences of the proposed transactions.

The combination of (i) the conversion of the Company from mutual to stock form, (ii) the termination of the Eligible Members' voting rights in, and rights to share in the surplus of, the Company, and (iii) the acquisition by Eligible Members of membership rights in Community Holdings Management Inc., will be treated, for United States federal income tax purposes, as a series of transactions in which, among other things, the Company's Eligible Members will be deemed to have: (A) exchanged their membership rights in the Company (in its pre-conversion mutual form) for interests in all of the authorized capital stock of the Company (in its post-conversion stock form, which we refer to hereinafter as the "Converted Company"); and, immediately thereafter, (B) exchanged all of their outstanding interests in the authorized capital stock of the Converted Company for membership rights in Community Holdings Management Inc. For United States federal income tax purposes:

- the conversion of the Company from a mutual insurance company to a stock insurance company, and the deemed exchange by Eligible Members of their membership rights in the Company (in its pre-conversion mutual form) for interests in the authorized capital stock of the Converted Company, will be a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, and the Company will be "a party to a reorganization" within the meaning of Section 368(b) of the Code;
- the Converted Company will constitute one and the same taxable entity as the Company in its pre-conversion mutual form;
- neither the Company in its pre-conversion mutual form nor the Converted Company will recognize gain or loss as a result of the conversion;
- an Eligible Member will not recognize any gain or loss on its deemed exchange of membership rights in the Company (in its pre-conversion mutual form) for interests in the authorized capital stock of the Converted Company;
- the tax attributes of the Company in its pre-conversion mutual form will remain unchanged as tax attributes of the Converted Company; thus, the Company's basis in its assets, holding period for its assets, net operating loss carryovers, if any, capital loss carryovers, if any, earnings and profits and accounting methods will not be changed by reason of the conversion, except for possible limitations on the rate at which such carryovers may be used after the conversion;
- although not free from doubt, it is likely that (i) the basis of an Eligible Member's membership rights in the Company will be zero, and (ii) the basis of an Eligible Member's interest in the capital stock of the Converted Company, deemed received in exchange for such

Eligible Member's membership rights in the Company, will equal the basis of such Eligible Member's membership rights in the Company (i.e., zero);

- the holding period of an Eligible Member's interest in the capital stock of the Converted Company, deemed received in exchange for such Eligible Member's membership rights in the Company, will include the period such Eligible Member held its membership rights in the Company;
- the membership rights in Community Holdings Management Inc. deemed received by Eligible Members in exchange for their interests in the capital stock of the Converted Company will be treated as stock within the meaning of Section 351 of the Code;
- the Converted Company will not recognize any gain or loss on its deemed issuance of Converted Company stock in exchange for Eligible Members' membership rights in the Company; and
- an Eligible Member will not recognize any gain or loss on its deemed exchange of interests in the authorized capital stock of the Converted Company for membership rights in Community Holdings Management Inc.

THE FOREGOING DISCUSSION IS NOT INTENDED AS A SUBSTITUTE FOR CAREFUL TAX PLANNING. THE TAX EFFECTS OF THE PROPOSED TRANSACTIONS ARE COMPLEX AND ARE SUBJECT TO VARYING INTERPRETATIONS. MOREOVER, THE EFFECTS OF EXISTING INCOME TAX LAWS, THE MEANING AND IMPACT OF WHICH IS UNCERTAIN, WILL VARY WITH THE PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES OF EACH ELIGIBLE MEMBER. EACH ELIGIBLE MEMBER AND OTHER TAXPAYER SHOULD SEEK ADVICE BASED ON ITS PARTICULAR CIRCUMSTANCES FROM AN INDEPENDENT TAX ADVISOR.

Interpretation and Amendment of the Plan of Conversion

All interpretations of the Plan by the Board of Directors of the Company will be final, subject to the limitations of applicable law. The Plan may be amended at any time before it is approved by the Insurance Department, provided that the amendment is approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors of the Company. The Plan also may be amended at any time after it is approved by the Insurance Department, provided that the amendment is approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors of the Company, and by the Insurance Department. The Plan may be amended at any time after it is approved by the Eligible Members of the Company and prior to the effective date of the conversion, provided that the amendment is approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors of the Company then in office and by the Insurance Department. In addition, if the Insurance Department determines that the amendment is material, the amendment also must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of Eligible Members called for that purpose. If Eligible Members are required to approve an amendment to the Plan, a proxy statement will be sent to each Eligible Member as soon as practical after the amendment is approved by the Directors of the Company and the Insurance Department.

If, prior to the effective date of the conversion, the Insurance Department adopts regulations containing mandatory or optional provisions applicable to the conversion, the Plan may be amended to conform to these regulations. This type of amendment can be made at any time prior to the effective date of the conversion, provided that it is approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors of the Company, and no re-solicitation of proxies or further approval by Eligible Members will be required.

Termination

The Plan may be terminated at any time before it is approved by the Eligible Members provided that the termination is approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors of the Company. The Plan may be terminated at any time after it is approved by Eligible Members and prior to the conversion's effective date by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Directors of the Company provided that any such termination is also approved by the Insurance Department.

DESCRIPTION OF THE MERGER

General

The Board of Directors of the Company approved the merger of the Company with and into Lehigh on April 22, 2016. The Agreement and Plan of Merger (the "Merger Agreement") is dated as of May , 2016, and provides that following the conversion of both the Company and Lehigh from mutual insurance companies to stock insurance companies, the Company will merge with and into Lehigh, with Lehigh as the surviving corporation. As a result, Lehigh will become the insurer under the policies of insurance issued by the Company prior to the effective date of the merger and will succeed to all of the assets of the Company and will assume all of the liabilities and obligations of the Company, including any rights of policyholders under policies of insurance issued by the Company.

Background and Reasons for the Merger

The Boards of Directors of the Company and Lehigh believe that the merger of the two insurance companies will lead to operating efficiencies and that Community Insurance Company will be in a stronger financial position than either of the companies on a stand-alone basis. In addition, the Boards of Directors of both companies believe that because they serve different geographic markets, combining the companies will diversify the risk of significant property damage resulting from localized weather incidents such as hail storms, ice storms and tornados.

Effect on Policyholders

The Merger will have no effect on the rights of policyholders of the Company. Any contractual obligations of the Company under policies issued by the Company will be assumed by Lehigh, and any claims made under such policies will be processed by the employees of Lehigh after the merger.

Management of Lehigh After the Merger

The Merger Agreement provides that the directors of the Company will become the directors of Community Holdings Management Inc. after the Merger and that Mark Keyser will serve as the Chairman of the Board of Directors of the mutual holding company. The current directors of Lehigh will become the directors of Community Insurance Company following the conversions and the Merger. Following the Merger, Michael A. Yeager will be the President of Community Insurance Company, James J. Gardner, Jr. will be an Executive Vice President and the Secretary, and Keith Ulsh will be the Treasurer. Mr. Yeager is currently the President and Chief Executive Officer of Lehigh, and Mr. Gardner and Mr. Ulsh are currently the President and the Treasurer of the Company, respectively. Mr. Yeager is also a director of the Company.

Effect on Employees of the Company

The Merger will have no effect on employees of the Company or Lehigh because all existing employees of both companies will remain employees of Community Insurance Company after the Merger. In addition, Community Insurance Company will continue to maintain the Company's office at 1214 South 2nd Street, Clearfield, Pennsylvania 16830.

Conditions to Closing of the Merger

The Merger is contingent upon approval of the Plan by (i) the Insurance Department and (ii) the Eligible Members of the Company at the Special Meeting. The Insurance Department approved the Plan on _____, 2016. Insurance Department approval does not constitute a recommendation or endorsement of the Plan. The merger of the Company and Lehigh is also contingent upon approval of the plan of conversion adopted by Lehigh by the eligible members of Lehigh at a special meeting of its members to be held on ____, 2016.

The Bylaws of Community Holdings Management Inc. will also provide that the number of Directors of Community Holdings Management Inc. shall not be fewer than seven, and no more than fifteen, with the exact number to be determined by the Board of Directors. Nominations for election to the Board may be made by either a majority of the Nominating Committee of the Board or five percent (5%) or more of the members.

The Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Community Holdings Management Inc. are substantially in the form attached as Exhibits C and D hereto.

CLEARFIELD COUNTY INSURANCE COMPANY
(a Pennsylvania Insurance Corporation)

ARTICLE I OFFICES

Section 1.01. Registered Office. The registered office of Clearfield County Insurance Company (the “Corporation”) in Pennsylvania shall be at the place designated in the Articles of Incorporation, subject to change upon notice to the Secretary of the Commonwealth as may be permitted by law.

Section 1.02. Other Offices. The Corporation may also have offices at such other places as the Board of Directors may from time to time designate or as the business of the Corporation may require.

ARTICLE II
SEAL

Section 2.01. Corporate Seal. The corporate seal, if any, shall have inscribed thereon the name of the Corporation, the year of its incorporation and the words “Corporate Seal Pennsylvania.” Such seal may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or in any manner reproduced.

ARTICLE III
SHAREHOLDERS’ MEETINGS

Section 3.01. Place of Meetings. All meetings of the shareholders shall be held at the registered office of the Corporation or at such other place, within or without the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as the Board of Directors or shareholders may from time to time determine.

Section 3.02. Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the shareholders shall be held each year at such time and on such date as shall be designated by resolution of the Board of Directors, not later than five months after the end of the Corporation’s fiscal year, for the election of directors and the transaction of such other business as may properly be brought before the meeting. If a meeting for the election of directors shall not be held before the end of any calendar year, any shareholder may call such meeting at any time thereafter.

Section 3.03. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by the Chairman of the Board, or a majority of the Board of Directors, or the holder or holders of not less than one-fifth (or such smaller fraction as may be provided by law in particular cases) of all the shares of the Corporation outstanding and entitled to vote at the particular meeting. If called by shareholders, such request shall be in writing delivered to the Secretary of the Corporation and shall state the time, place and general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting; and it shall be the duty of the Secretary to call such meeting to be held not more than sixty days after receipt of the request. If the Secretary shall neglect or refuse to issue such call, the person or persons making the request may do so.

Section 3.04. Notice of Meetings. Written notice of every meeting of the shareholders shall be given by or at the direction of the Secretary or other authorized person to each shareholder of record entitled to vote at the meeting at least (i) ten (10) days prior to the day named for a meeting that will consider a fundamental change under Chapter 19 of the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law (the "PABCL") or (ii) five (5) days prior to the day named for the meeting in any other case. Notice shall be deemed to have been properly given to a shareholder when delivered to such shareholder personally, or when sent by first class or express mail, postage prepaid, or by electronic mail.

Section 3.05. Exception to Notice. Whenever any notice or communication is required to be given to a shareholder and communication with that shareholder is then unlawful, the giving of the notice or communication to that shareholder shall not be required and there shall be no duty to apply for a license or other permission to do so. If the action taken is such as to require the filing of any document with respect thereto, it shall be sufficient, if such is the fact and if notice or communication is required, to state therein that notice or communication was given to all shareholders entitled to receive notice or communication except persons with whom communication was unlawful. This exception shall also be applicable to any shareholder with whom the Corporation has been unable to communicate for more than 24 consecutive months because communications to the shareholder are returned unclaimed or the shareholder has otherwise failed to provide the Corporation with a current address. Whenever the shareholder provides the Corporation with a current address, this exception shall cease to be applicable to the shareholder.

Section 3.06. Waiver of Notice. Whenever any written notice is required to be given to a shareholder under the provisions of applicable law or by these Bylaws, a waiver thereof in writing, signed by the person entitled to notice either before or after the time stated therein, and whether before or after the meeting, shall be deemed equivalent to the giving of due notice. Except as otherwise required by law, neither the business to be transacted at the meeting, nor the purpose of the meeting, need be specified in the waiver of notice of such meeting. In the case of a special meeting of shareholders, the waiver of notice shall specify the general nature of the business to be transacted at the meeting. Attendance of any person, either in person or by proxy, at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a person entitled to notice attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

Section 3.07. Quorum. The presence, in person (including participation by telephone or similar communication as provided in Section 8.04 hereof) or by proxy, of the shareholders entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all shareholders are entitled to cast on the particular matter shall be requisite and shall constitute a quorum for the purpose of considering such matter at any meeting of the shareholders for the election of directors or for the transaction of other business except as otherwise provided by statute or in these Bylaws. The shareholders present at a duly organized meeting can continue to do business until adjournment, notwithstanding the withdrawal of enough shareholders to leave less than a quorum. If, however, any meeting of shareholders cannot be organized because a quorum has not attended, the shareholders entitled to vote thereat present in person or by proxy shall have the power to adjourn the meeting to such time and place as they may determine, except that in the case of any meeting called for the election of directors, such meeting may be adjourned only from day to day, or for such longer periods not exceeding fifteen days each, as may be directed by shareholders who are present in person or by proxy and who are entitled to vote, until such directors have been elected; and those who attend the second of such adjourned meetings, although less than a quorum as fixed by law or in the Articles of Incorporation, shall nevertheless constitute a quorum for the purpose of electing directors.

Section 3.08. Shareholders Entitled to Vote. Unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Incorporation, every shareholder shall be entitled to one vote for every share standing in his or her name on the books of the Corporation. In the event the Board of Directors shall fix a time prior to the date of any meeting of shareholders, as a record date for the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at any such meeting, which time, except in the case of an adjourned meeting, shall not be more than ninety days prior to the date of the meeting of shareholders. Only such shareholders as shall be shareholders of record on the date so fixed shall be entitled to notice of, or to vote at, such meeting notwithstanding any transfer of shares on the books of the Corporation after such record date. If a record date shall not be fixed by the Board of Directors for a particular shareholders' meeting, the record date for determining shareholders entitled to notice of or to vote at a meeting of shareholders shall be at the close of business on the day next preceding the day on which notice is given or, if notice is waived, at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the day on which the meeting is held.

Section 3.09. Shareholders May Vote in Person or by Proxy. Every shareholder entitled to vote may vote either in person or by proxy. Every proxy shall be executed in writing by a shareholder, or by his or her duly authorized attorney-in-fact and filed with the Secretary of the Corporation. A proxy, unless coupled with an interest, shall be revocable at will, notwithstanding any other agreement or any provision in the proxy to the contrary, but the revocation of a proxy shall not be effective until notice thereof has been given to the Secretary of the Corporation. No unrevoked proxy shall be valid after three years from the date of its execution, unless a longer time is expressly provided therein. A proxy shall not be revoked by the death or incapacity of the maker unless, before the vote is counted or the authority is exercised, written notice of such death or incapacity is given to the Secretary of the Corporation. Where two or more proxies of a shareholder are present, the Corporation shall, unless otherwise expressly provided in the proxy, accept as the vote of all shares represented thereby the vote cast by a majority of them and, if a majority of the proxies cannot agree whether the shares represented shall be voted or upon the manner of voting the shares, the voting of the shares shall be divided equally among those persons.

Section 3.10. Nomination and Election of Directors; No Cumulative Voting.

(a) Nominations for Board of Directors other than those recommended by the Board shall be in writing and delivered to the Secretary not less than ninety (90) days before the annual meeting of shareholders. The Secretary shall advise the Board of Directors of such nominations not less than thirty days before the Board of Director's regular meeting scheduled prior to the date of the annual meeting of shareholders.

(b) Elections for directors need not be by ballot except upon demand made by a shareholder at the election and before the voting begins.

(c) There shall be no cumulative voting. Shareholders shall have one vote per share and directors shall be elected by a plurality of the votes cast, in person or by proxy, at a meeting of shareholders by the holders of shares entitled to vote therein.

Section 3.11. Voting. Except as otherwise provided by law or these Bylaws, whenever any corporate action is to be taken by vote of the shareholders, it shall be authorized by a majority of the votes cast at a duly organized meeting of shareholders by the holders of shares entitled to vote thereon.

Section 3.12. Voting Expenses. The Corporation shall, pay the reasonable expenses of solicitation of votes, proxies or consents of shareholders by or on behalf of the Board of Directors or its nominees for election to the Board, including solicitation by professional proxy solicitors and otherwise, and may pay the reasonable expenses of a solicitation by or on behalf of other persons.

Section 3.13. Voting Lists. The officer or agent having charge of the transfer books for shares of the Corporation shall make a complete list of the shareholders entitled to vote at the meeting, arranged in alphabetical order, with the address of and the number of shares held by each. Such list shall be produced and kept open at the time and place of the meeting, and shall be subject to the inspection of any shareholder during the whole time of the meeting, except that if the Corporation has one thousand (1,000) or more shareholders, in lieu of the making of such list the Corporation may make the information therein available by any other means.

Section 3.14. Judges of Election. In advance of any meeting of shareholders, the Board of Directors may appoint Judges of Election, who may but need not be shareholders, to act at such meeting or any adjournment thereof. If Judges of Election be not so appointed, the Chairman of any such meeting may, and on the request of any shareholder or his proxy shall, make such appointment at the meeting. The number of Judges shall be one or three. If appointed at the meeting on the request of one or more shareholders or proxies, the question of whether one or three Judges are to be appointed shall be determined as provided by law. No person who is a candidate for office to be filled at the meeting shall act as a Judge. In case any person appointed as Judge fails to appear or fails or refuses to act, the vacancy may be filled by appointment made by the Board of Directors in advance of the convening of the meeting, or at the meeting by the person acting as Chairman. The Judges of Election shall do all such acts as may be proper to ascertain the existence of a quorum and the number of votes cast, and to conduct the election or vote with fairness to all shareholders. They shall, if requested by the Chairman of the meeting or any shareholder or his or her proxy, make a written report of any matter determined by them and execute a certificate of any fact found by them. If there be three Judges of Election the decision, act or certificate of a majority shall be effective in all respects as the decision, act, or certificate of all.

Section 3.15. Notice of Adjournments. Upon adjournment of an annual or special meeting of shareholders it shall not be necessary to give any notice of the adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted thereat, other than by announcement at the meeting at which such adjournment is taken unless the Board fixes a new record date for the adjourned meeting. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present or represented, any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

Section 3.16. Informal Action by Shareholders. Except as may be otherwise provided by statute or in the Articles of Incorporation, notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in these Bylaws, any action required or permitted be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting, if, prior or subsequent to the action a consent thereto by all of the shareholders who would be entitled to vote at a meeting for such purpose shall be filed with the Secretary of the Corporation.

ARTICLE IV DIRECTORS

Section 4.01. Number, Classes, Term of Office, and Retirement.

(a) The business and affairs of the Corporation shall be managed under the direction of a board consisting of not less than seven (7) directors who shall be natural persons of full age. At least two-thirds of the directors shall be citizens of the United States. Directors need not be residents of Pennsylvania or shareholders of the Corporation.

Any incorporator may act in person, by written consent or by proxy signed by him or her or his or her attorney-in-fact. If a designated director or an incorporator dies or is for any reason unable to act at the meeting, the other or others may act. If there is no other designated director or incorporator able to act, any person for whom an incorporator was acting as agents may act or appoint another to act in his or her stead.

Whenever any notice or communication is required to be given to a director under the provisions of applicable law or by the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws or by the terms of any agreement or other instrument or as a condition precedent to taking any corporate action and communication with that director is then unlawful, the giving of the notice or communication to that director shall not be required and there shall be no duty to apply for a license or other permission to do so. Any action or meeting that is taken or held without notice or communication to that director shall have the same validity as if the notice or communication had been duly given. Attendance of any director at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where such director attends the meeting for the express purpose of objecting, at the beginning of the meeting, to the transaction of any business because the meeting was not lawfully called or convened.

Section 4.12. Quorum. A majority of directors shall constitute a quorum for any regular or special meeting of the Board, and a majority of the members of any committee of the Board shall constitute a quorum for any meeting of such committee. At any adjourned meeting at which a quorum shall be present any business may be transacted which might have been transacted at the meeting originally called.

Section 4.15. Action in Lieu of a Meeting. Any action required or permitted to be taken by the Board of Directors or by any committee thereof may be taken without a meeting if all of the members of the Board of Directors or of any committee thereof consent in writing to the adoption of a resolution authorizing the action. “Person.” A natural person, corporation, general or limited partnership, limited liability company, joint venture, trust, estate, association, or other legal entity or organization.

“Treasury Regulations” or “Treas.Reg.” The income tax regulations, including temporary regulations, promulgated under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, as those regulations may be amended from time to time (including corresponding provisions of successor regulations).

ARTICLE II - ORGANIZATION

2.1. Principal Place of Business; Other Offices. The principal place of business of the Company shall be at 1047 Hamilton Street, Allentown, Pennsylvania 18101 or at such other place as the Member may designate from time to time, which need not be in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. The Company may have such other offices as the Member may designate from time to time.

2.2. Purpose. The object and purpose of, and the nature of the business to be conducted and promoted by, the Company is to engage in any lawful act or activity for which limited liability companies may be organized under the Act and to engage in any and all lawful activities necessary, convenient, desirable or incidental to the foregoing.

ARTICLE III - MEMBERSHIP INTERESTS

3.1. Transferability of Membership Interest. A membership interest in the Company is freely transferable or assignable, in whole or in part, either voluntarily or by operation of law.

3.2. Admission of Additional Members. Additional members of the Company may be admitted to the Company at the direction of the Member only if a new operating agreement or an amendment and restatement of this Agreement is executed.

ARTICLE IV - FINANCIAL AND TAX MATTERS

4.1. Capital Contributions. The Company shall keep a record of the capital contributions made by the Member. The Member shall not be required to make any capital contribution to the Company not specifically agreed to in writing between the Member and the Company, or be obligated or required under any circumstances to restore any negative balance in the Member's capital account.

4.2. Advances by the Member. The Member may agree to loan funds to or guarantee obligations of the Company. A loan to the Company or guarantee of its obligations by the Member is not a capital contribution.

4.3. Distributions.

(a) Distributions to Member. Except as otherwise provided in Article VIII, distributions shall be made to the Member (in cash or in kind) at such times and in such amounts determined by the Member and as permitted by applicable law.

(b) No Distribution Upon Dissociation. Unless otherwise determined by the Member, no distribution will be paid to the Member upon the Member's withdrawal from the Company in connection with a voluntary transfer or assignment of the Member's entire membership interest in accordance with the provisions of the Act and this Operating Agreement.

4.4. Title to Company Property. All real and personal property shall be acquired in the name of the Company and title to any property so acquired shall vest in the Company itself rather than in the Member.

4.5. Tax Elections. Neither the Company nor the Member may make an election for the Company to be taxable as a corporation for federal income tax purposes or to be excluded from the application of the provisions of subchapter K of chapter 1 of subtitle A of the Code or any similar provisions of applicable state law, and no provision of this Agreement shall be construed to sanction or approve such an election.

ARTICLE V - MANAGEMENT

5.1. Management by Member.

(a) Exclusive Responsibility. The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by the Member. The Member, on behalf of the Company, shall have the power to do any and all acts necessary or convenient to, or for the furtherance of, the business and affairs of the Company.

(b) Delegation. The Member may appoint officers and agents of the Company to which the Member may delegate whatever duties, responsibilities, and authority the Member may desire. Any officer or agent may be removed by the Member at any time. If the Member appoints an officer of the Company with a title that is commonly used for officers of a business corporation, the assignment of title shall constitute the delegation of the authority and duties that are normally associated with that office, subject to any specific delegation of authority and duties made by the Member. Any number of offices may be held by the same person. The salaries and other compensation, if any, of the officers and agents of the Company shall be fixed from time to time by the Member.

5.2. Conflicts of Interest. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit the right of the Member to enter into any transaction that may be considered to be competitive with, or a business opportunity that may be beneficial to, the Company. The Member does not violate a duty or obligation to the Company merely because the conduct of the Member furthers the interests of the Member. The Member may lend money to and transact other business with the Company. The rights and obligations of the Member upon lending money to or transacting business with the Company are the same as those of a person who is not the Member, subject to other applicable law. No transaction with the Company shall be void or voidable solely because the Member has a direct or indirect interest in the transaction.

5.3. Compensation. The Member may be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in managing the Company and may, at the election of the Member, be entitled to compensation for management services rendered, in an amount to be determined from time to time by the Member.

ARTICLE VI - MEMBER

6.1. Member. The name and address of the Member are:

Community Holdings Management, Inc.
1047 Hamilton Street
Allentown, PA 18101

6.2. Liability of the Member. The Member, as such, shall not be liable for the debts, obligations, or liabilities of the Company or for the acts or omissions of any officer, agent, or employee of the Company except to the extent provided in the Act. The failure of the Member to observe any formalities or requirements relating to the exercise of the powers of the Member or the management of the business and affairs of the Company under this Agreement or the Act shall not be grounds for imposing liability on the Member for liabilities of the Company.

ARTICLE VII - INDEMNIFICATION OF THE MEMBER, OFFICERS, AND OTHER AUTHORIZED REPRESENTATIVES

7.1. Indemnification. The Company shall indemnify any person who was or is a party to or is threatened to be made a party to or is otherwise involved in any threatened, pending, or completed action or proceeding, including without limitation actions by or in the right of the Company, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, by reason of the fact that the person is or was the Member or an officer of the Company, or is or was serving while the Member or an officer of the Company at the request of the Company as a director, manager, officer, employee, agent, fiduciary, or other representative of another corporation (for-profit or not-for-profit), limited liability company, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan, or other enterprise, against all liabilities, expenses (including without limitation attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, excise taxes, and amounts paid in settlement in connection with the action or proceeding unless the act or failure to act by the person giving rise to the claim for indemnification is determined by a court to have constituted willful misconduct or recklessness. The Company shall have the power to indemnify employees and agents of the Company on the same basis as provided in this section with respect to the Member and officers, and to advance expenses to employees and agents on the same basis as provided in section 7.02, as the Member may from time to time determine or authorize.

7.2. Advancement of Expenses. Expenses (including without limitation attorneys' fees) incurred by any person who was or is the Member or an officer of the Company in defending any action or proceeding referred to in section 7.01 shall automatically be paid by the Company, without the need for action by the Member, in advance of the final disposition of the action or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person to repay the amount advanced if it shall ultimately be determined that the person is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company.

7.3. Exception. Notwithstanding anything in this Article VII to the contrary, the Company shall not be obligated to indemnify an officer under section 7.01 or advance expenses to an officer under section 7.02 with respect to proceedings, claims, or actions commenced by that person, other than mandatory counterclaims and affirmative defenses.

7.4. Interpretation. The indemnification and advancement of expenses provided by or pursuant to this Article VII shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification or advancement of expenses may be entitled under any insurance policy, agreement, approval of the Member, or otherwise, both as to actions in the person's official capacity and as to actions in another capacity while holding an office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be the Member or an officer and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of the person. If the Act is amended to permit a Pennsylvania limited liability company to provide greater rights to indemnification and advancement of expenses for its member and officers than the express terms of this Article VII, this Article VII shall be construed to provide for such greater rights.

7.5. Contract. The duties of the Company to indemnify and to advance expenses to the Member or an officer as provided in this Article VII shall be in the nature of a contract between the Company and each such person, and no amendment or repeal of any provision of this Article VII shall alter, to the detriment of such person, the right of the person to the advancement of expenses or indemnification related to a claim based on an act or failure to act that took place prior to the amendment or repeal or the termination of the service of the person as the Member or officer, whichever is earlier.

ARTICLE VIII - DISSOLUTION

8.1. Dissolution.

(a) The Company shall dissolve, and its affairs shall be wound up, upon the first to occur of the following:

(i) the written direction of the Member; or

(ii) the entry of an order of judicial dissolution of the Company under section 8972 of the Act.

(b) The death (or dissolution if the Member is not a natural person), retirement, insanity, resignation, or bankruptcy of the Member or the occurrence of any other event that terminates the continued membership of the Member shall not cause a dissolution of the Company.

(c) Upon dissolution, the Company shall cease carrying on any and all business other than the winding up of the Company business, but the Company is not terminated and shall continue until the winding up of the affairs of the Company is completed and a certificate of dissolution has been filed pursuant to the Act. Upon the winding up of the Company, the Company's property shall be distributed (i) first to creditors, including the Member if the Member is a creditor, to the extent permitted by law, in satisfaction of the Company's liabilities; and (ii) then to the Member. Distributions shall be in cash or property or partly in both, as determined by the Member.

ARTICLE IX - GENERAL PROVISIONS

9.1. Entire Agreement. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement of the Member and the Company with respect to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, express or implied, oral or written, with respect thereto. The express terms of this Agreement control and supersede any course of performance or usage of trade inconsistent with any of the terms hereof.

9.2. Amendment. This Agreement or the Certificate may be amended from time to time only by action of the Member. All amendments must be in writing.

9.3. Binding Effect and Rights of Third Parties. This Agreement has been adopted to govern the operation of the Company, and shall be binding on and inure to the benefit of the Member and the heirs, personal representatives, successors, and assigns of the Member. This Agreement is expressly not intended for the benefit of any creditor of the Company or any other person, except a person entitled to indemnification, contribution, or advancement of expenses under Article VII. 9.4. Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by and interpreted and enforced in accordance with the substantive laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (including, without limitation, provisions concerning limitations of actions), without reference to the conflict of laws rules of that or any other jurisdiction, except that federal laws shall also apply to the extent relevant.

9.5. Severability. If any provision of this Agreement or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid or unenforceable to any extent, the remainder of this Agreement and the application of that provision to other persons or circumstances shall not be affected thereby and that provision shall be enforced to the greatest extent permitted by law.

9.6. Construction. Whenever the context requires, the gender of any word used in this Agreement includes the masculine, feminine, or neuter, and the number of any word includes the singular or plural. All references to articles and sections refer to articles and sections of this Agreement. The headings in this Agreement are for convenience only; they do not form a part of this Agreement and shall not affect its interpretation.
