Schedule 4.15 WPAHS Parties' Material Contracts

In order to assess whether a Contract involves the payment or receipt of more than $500,000 or $900,000 annually, as applicable, WPAHS evaluated certain accounts payable and receivable data available for Fiscal Years 2010 and 2011.

- (i) Contracts that are entered into with a physician or doctor of osteopathic medicine or any other party which to the Knowledge of WPAHS is owned in whole or in part by a physician or doctor of osteopathic medicine, and involve the payment or receipt of a base salary or fee of more than $500,000 annually.
  - Employment Agreements with those providers set forth in the chart below:
     Note: Chart includes information as of October 18, 2011.

and ASPN, as amended, provides that may elect to have AGH and ASPN assign the employment agreement to The Western Pennsylvania Healthcare System, Inc. ("WPHS," the former parent organization of WPH and other organizations, which was dissolved on December 29, 2003) or an affiliate thereof upon a change of control of AGH. A "change of control" includes the substitution of the sole voting member of AGH. As AGH is a d/b/a of WPAHS, this Transaction may trigger the assignment clause in such Employment Agreement. However, WPHS no longer exists to take assignment.

- Affiliation and Service Agreement between West Penn Allegheny Health System, Inc., Premier Health Care System, Inc. and Premier Medical Associates, P.C., dated July 8, 2010 (the "Premier Services Agreement").
