

AMENDED AND RESTATED
ALTERNATIVE PLAN OF CONVERSION OF SAUCON MUTUAL INSURANCE COMPANY

On February 4, 2015, the Board of Directors of Saucon Mutual Insurance Company (“Saucon Mutual”) will consider this Amended and Restated Alternative Plan of Conversion of Saucon Mutual Insurance Company (the “Plan”).

On August 27, 2014, the Board of Directors of Saucon approved an Alternative Plan of Conversion of Saucon Mutual Insurance Company (the “Original Plan”). The Original Plan was filed with the Pennsylvania Department of Insurance (the “Department”) on September 2, 2014. The Department has not yet approved the Original Plan. By letter dated January 12, 2015, the Department provided a list of additional items necessary to the review of the filing of the Original Plan. The Plan, if duly approved by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the directors of Saucon Mutual then in office, will amend and restate the Original Plan.

I. THE APPLICATION

If the Plan is adopted by the Board of Directors of Saucon Mutual, Saucon Mutual will file an application containing this Plan with the Department on or about February 6, 2015, which is within ninety (90) days after adoption of the Plan by the Board of Directors of Saucon Mutual and before the vote on the approval of the Plan by the mutual company’s Eligible Members (defined in Section III.A below). The application will contain the following:

- (1) the Plan;
- (2) a form of member information statement satisfying the requirements of 40 P.S. § 913-A(f) (the “Member Information Statement”);
- (3) the form of proxy to be solicited from Eligible Members;
- (4) the proposed amended articles of incorporation and bylaws of the converted insurance company;
- (5) a copy of a formal request that the Department approve “Saucon Insurance Company” as the intended name of the converted insurance company;
- (6) an acquisition of control statement as required by Section 1402 of the Insurance Company Act of 1921, as amended (the “Form A”);
- (7) a Fairness Opinion prepared by Boenning & Scattergood;
- (8) the articles of incorporation and proposed bylaws of the holding company;
- (9) the form of shareholder agreement for the holding company;
- (10) a list of the current directors of Saucon Mutual.

II. BACKGROUND & BUSINESS PURPOSE

A. Factual Background

Saucon Mutual was incorporated in Pennsylvania on May 3, 1832 as the Farmers Fire Insurance Company of Upper and Lower Saucon Townships. It began business in 1832 and has operated as a property insurance company for over 180 years. It is approved to write homeowners and dwelling property coverages, and maintains perpetual and non-perpetual policies for these programs. Saucon Mutual does not have any assessment provisions or any participating policies that provide for a right to receive dividends. As of August 27, 2014 (the Record Date selected by Saucon Mutual's Board of Directors), Saucon Mutual had approximately three hundred and ninety-four (394) policies in force.

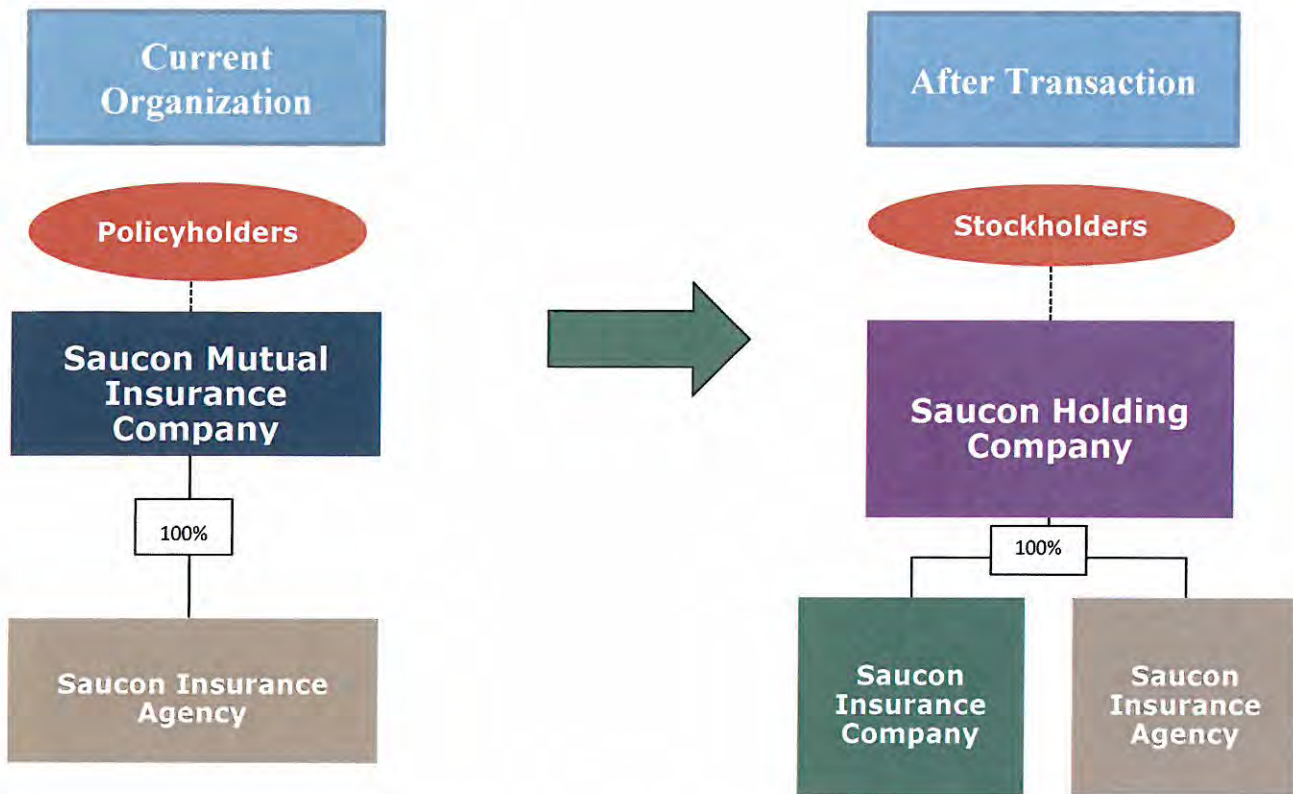

In 1991, Saucon Mutual organized Saucon Insurance Agency, Inc. (the "Agency") as a wholly-owned subsidiary. The Agency is an independent insurance agency that sells automobile insurance, homeowners insurance, business insurance and other insurance. The Agency also offers employee benefits consulting. Saucon Mutual reports the 100% of the capital stock of the Agency that it owns on its balance sheet as an asset with a value of $1.00.

Saucon Mutual has written very few new insurance policies since 2005. Although Saucon Mutual maintains a level of surplus that satisfies relevant legal requirements, it has only four employees and believes that it does not presently have the infrastructure that would enable it to successfully resume the underwriting of new insurance policies.

Since its organization, Saucon Mutual has been organized according to the mutual principle. For the reasons described in Section II.C, the Board of Directors of Saucon Mutual has determined that it is in the best interest of the company and its members to convert into a stock insurance corporation.

B. Conversion of Saucon Mutual

The Board of Directors of Saucon Mutual by approving this plan, will approve a series of transactions that will convert Saucon Mutual into a stock corporation, all of the capital stock of which would be held by a newly-organized stock holding corporation, and all of the capital stock of that stock holding corporation in turn would be held by investors in a stock offering that will be conducted concurrently with the conversion of Saucon Mutual (the "Conversion"). The term "Converted Insurance Company", as used in this Plan, means the stock insurance company into which Saucon Mutual will be converted upon the Conversion, which will be called "Saucon Insurance Company."

To accomplish the Conversion, the following steps will occur:

1. Creation of Holding Company Saucon Holding Company (“Saucon Holding”) has been organized as a Pennsylvania stock corporation for the purpose of becoming the holding company of the Converted Insurance Company. The articles of incorporation of Saucon Holding have been filed with the Pennsylvania Department of State, but Saucon Holding has not yet and prior to the closing of the Conversion will not have issued stock, elected any directors or officers, or engaged in any business activities. The Articles of Incorporation of Saucon Holding are attached hereto as Exhibit A, and the Bylaws of Saucon Holding are attached hereto as Exhibit B. Upon the Conversion, all individuals who are then directors of Saucon Mutual will also become directors of Saucon Holding in addition to continuing to serve as directors of the Converted Insurance Company.
2. Subscription Agreements For Saucon Holding Stock. On the Effective Date (defined in Section II.D below), Saucon Holding will enter into subscription agreements with certain investors under which those investors will subscribe for Saucon Holding’s capital stock as described in Section V. Upon the Conversion, Saucon Holding will become the sole stockholder of the Converted Insurance Company, and the investors who enter into these subscription agreements with Saucon Holding will acquire and become the holders of all of Saucon Holding’s capital stock. Those investors will also enter into the shareholder agreement of Saucon Holding in the form attached to the application.

3. Amendment to Articles of Incorporation. On the Effective Date, the Articles of Incorporation of Saucon Mutual will be amended and restated in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C to reflect the conversion of the Saucon Mutual into a stock corporation, which will include a company name change to “Saucon Insurance Company.” Saucon Mutual is concurrently formally requesting that the Department approve “Saucon Insurance Company” as the intended name of the converted insurance company.

4. Issuance and Sale of Converted Insurance Company’s Capital Stock. On the Effective Date, the Converted Insurance Company will issue and sell to Saucon Holding, and Saucon Holding will purchase from the Converted Insurance Company, one thousand shares of the Converted Insurance Company’s capital stock, which will constitute all of the issued and outstanding shares of capital stock of the Converted Insurance Company with the result that the Converted Insurance Company will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Saucon Holding. Those authorized and outstanding shares will have a par value of $950.00 per share. Saucon Holding will pay an aggregate purchase price of $1,425,000 for those shares, using a portion of the proceeds of the stock offering described in the preceding paragraph 2 to do so. The Converted Insurance Company will record the proceeds of that issuance and sale of the Converted Insurance Company’s capital stock as follows: $950,000 as paid-in capital (i.e., 1,000 shares times $950.00 par value per share) and $475,000 as paid-in surplus, with the result that the statutory minimum amounts of capital and of paid-in and contributed surplus for the Converted Insurance Company’s lines will have been satisfied.

5. Consideration. The Converted Insurance Company will pay and make available to each Eligible Member of Saucon Mutual the consideration described in Section IV.A. below (which payments will be in the aggregate amount of approximately $1,064,788, assuming a closing date of June 30, 2015), and will also make a $1,000,000 contribution to the Lehigh Valley Community Foundation as described in Section IV.C. below.

6. Transfer of the Agency. Saucon Holding will also become the direct sole stockholder of the Agency immediately after the amendment of Saucon Mutual’s Articles of Incorporation. The Converted Insurance Company will distribute to Saucon Holding (as its sole stockholder) all of the issued and outstanding capital stock of the Agency. As a result of that distribution, Saucon Insurance Agency will become a wholly-owned direct subsidiary of Saucon Holding and a sister corporation (not a subsidiary) of the Converted Insurance Company.

The Conversion is subject to provisions of the Insurance Company Mutual-to-Stock Conversion Act, 40 P.S. §§ 911-A et seq. (the “Conversion Act”), the Pennsylvania Business Corporation Law, other applicable Pennsylvania laws, and the policies of the Pennsylvania Insurance Department (“Department”). This Plan is an “alternative plan of conversion” within the meaning of 40 P.S. § 917-A. This Plan and the transactions contemplated hereby are further subject to the approval of the Department. Additionally, the Plan must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of Eligible Members of Saucon Mutual called for the purpose of considering and voting upon the Plan as described in Section VII below.

C. Reason for Conversion

Saucon Mutual's Board of Directors has determined that the Conversion provides a unique opportunity to achieve several objectives: (i) rewarding members for their loyalty to the company; (ii) making a charitable contribution in furtherance of the company's ongoing commitment to the community; (iii) modernizing the company's governance structure; (iv) enabling the issuance of stock and other financial instruments in order to raise capital, to facilitate potential acquisitions of other businesses, and to incentivize employees; (v) preparing the company to re-enter the insurance underwriting business; and (vi) maintaining the independence of the company.

D. Effective Date

The effective date of the Conversion (the "Effective Date") will be the date that the Amended Articles of Incorporation are filed in the office of the Department of State of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or such later date as may be specified in the Amended Articles. On the Effective Date, the corporate existence of Saucon Mutual will continue as the Converted Insurance Company. Saucon Mutual seeks to file the Articles of Incorporation, and therefore close the Conversion, as promptly as practical after the Plan has been duly approved by the Department and by the Eligible Members.

III. ELIGIBLE MEMBERS

A. Definition of Eligible Member

All members of Saucon Mutual as of August 27, 2014 (the "Record Date") will be considered Eligible Members of Saucon Mutual. The Record Date is the date that the Original Plan was approved by the Board of Directors. Saucon Mutual has not issued any new policies since August 27, 2014 and will not issue any new policies between that date and the closing date of the Conversion or the abandonment of the Plan. All Saucon Mutual members as of the Record Date will be eligible to receive the compensation described in Section IV and will be entitled to vote on the Plan pursuant to Section VII.

B. Member Verification Process

Saucon Mutual conducted due diligence to verify its member list. As part of this project, former members whose policies were no longer active as of the Record Date, such as members who no longer qualified for coverage, were removed from the member list.

Saucon's process included preparing a list of all issued policies that have not been affirmatively terminated. From that list Saucon removed those policies where the members' right to coverage has been established through affirmative contact with the member within the past year. All members remaining on the list received a "Continuing Coverage Survey" by certified mail, return receipt requested to the members' last known addresses in Saucon Mutual's records. Members' responses to those surveys enabled Saucon Mutual to identify policies that should either remain in place or be cancelled. For policies that are to be cancelled, appropriate notices under Act 205 have been or will be sent where the insured has not independently confirmed the right to termination. Any member receiving a cancellation notice will remain eligible for a cash distribution if the thirty (30) day notice period has not expired prior to the Record Date, or the member files an appeal of the cancellation under Act

205. For those members whose right to ongoing coverage could not be verified by affirmative contact or through the Continuing Coverage Survey process, Saucon Mutual has attempted or will attempt to identify those members through: (a) searches of public records and property inspections / surveys to confirm the name and address of the individuals; (b) running advertisements in two (2) newspapers of major circulation within Saucon Mutual's underwriting territory for a period of one week, notifying all members of the surveys and encouraging them to contact Saucon directly; and (c) placing a notice on Saucon Mutual's website that is consistent with the newspaper advertisement and including copies of the Continuing Coverage Survey, and a method for members to return the surveys electronically, by mail, or facsimile.

For policies that Saucon Mutual could not verify its obligation to provide continuing coverage through the methods described above, Saucon Mutual will allow the policies to remain in place with any cash payment that would be due in connection with the Conversion escheating to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

IV. COMPENSATION TO MEMBERS

A. Description of Cash and Other Consideration to Members

All Eligible Members are entitled to the compensation described in this Plan if the Conversion is effectuated. The compensation package that an Eligible Member will receive will depend on whether it maintains a perpetual or non-perpetual insurance policy. Perpetual policies are written to have no term, or date, when the policy expires. From the policy's effective start date, the coverage will exist in perpetuity so long as the conditions of the policy continue to be satisfied. The insured deposits money, called a deposit premium, with the insurer for insurance for the life of the risk. Saucon Mutual also issues policies that do have a set date when the policy expires, these are referred to in this Plan as non-perpetual policies.

1. Compensation for Eligible Members Who Hold Perpetual Policies

A. Cash Payment. A cash payment computed by multiplying (i) the actual number of calendar days that the policy had been in effect from its issuance until the closing date of the Conversion, by (ii) $0.1644 per day, then rounding that amount to the nearest whole dollar. For example, a member who is a perpetual policyholder whose policy had been in effect for 10 years (i.e., 3650 days) would receive a cash payment of $600; and a member who is a perpetual policyholder whose policy had been in effect for 10 years plus 120 days (i.e., 3770 days) would receive a cash payment of $620. The aggregate amount of cash payments to all members who are perpetual policyholders under this paragraph will be $704,249, assuming a closing date of June 30, 2015.

B. Return of Deposits. A return of 15% of the Eligible Member's deposits held by Saucon Mutual, if any. The aggregate amount of deposits to be returned to members who are perpetual policyholders under this paragraph will be approximately $340,000, less any deposits that are returned before the closing in accordance with policy terms.

C. Removal of Charges for Increases in Policy Limits Under Inflation Adjustment Endorsements. Many of the perpetual insurance policies issued by Saucon Mutual have inflation adjustment endorsements, which are either “Annual Adjustment of Limits” endorsements or “Automatic Increase in Insurance” endorsements. Those endorsements generally cause the policy limit of the perpetual policy to be increased each year due to inflation, but they generally require the perpetual policyholder to pay an additional annual deposit to Saucon Mutual because of that increase in the policy limit. After the Conversion, the Converted Insurance Company will discontinue its practice of requiring holders of those perpetual policies to pay those additional annual deposits, commencing on the annual anniversary of the date of issuance of that perpetual policy that follows the closing date of the Conversion.

2. Compensation for Eligible Members Who Hold Non-Perpetual Policies

Cash Payment. A cash payment equal to the sum of:

- A cash payment computed by multiplying (i) the actual number of calendar days that the policy had been in effect (including all renewals) from its issuance until the closing date of the Conversion, by (ii) $0.1644 per day, then rounding that amount to the nearest whole dollar. For example, a member who is a non-perpetual policyholder whose policy had been issued and then renewed from time to time for a total period of 10 years (i.e., 3650 days) as of the closing date would receive a cash payment of $600; and a member who is a non-perpetual policyholder whose policy had been issued and then renewed from time to time for a period of 10 years plus 120 days (i.e., 3770 days) as of the closing date would receive a cash payment of $620. The aggregate amount of cash payments to all members who are non-perpetual policyholders under this paragraph will be $18,739, assuming a closing date of June 30, 2015; plus
- An additional one-time cash payment equal to 15% of the current premium of the policy. The aggregate amount of cash payments to be made to members who are non-perpetual policyholders under this paragraph would be approximately $1,800.

3. Aggregate Payments to Members

The aggregate amount of the payments to members described in paragraphs IV.A.1.A, IV.A.1.B and IV.A.2 above will be approximately $1,064,788, assuming a closing date of June 30, 2015.

4. Payment Procedure

Eligible Members of Saucon Mutual will receive a check issued by the Converted Insurance Company in the amounts described in clauses 1.A and 1.B, or 2, as applicable, as promptly as practicable after the Effective Date.

B. No Subscription Rights

No Saucon Mutual member, in its capacity as such, will be entitled, as part of or as a result of the Conversion, to receive any subscription right to purchase any of the capital stock of the Converted

Insurance Company or to purchase any of the capital stock of any other corporation. No director or officer of Saucon Mutual will receive any subscription rights to purchase the capital stock of the Converted Insurance Company. However, the directors and officers of Saucon Mutual are being offered the right to purchase capital stock of Saucon Holding as described in Section V below.

C. Charitable Contribution

On the Effective Date, the Converted Insurance Company will make a $1,000,000 contribution to the Lehigh Valley Community Foundation, which is to be used to establish the “Saucon Insurance Company Foundation Fund.” The Lehigh Valley Community Foundation is a philanthropic foundation established in 1967 that promotes and encourages philanthropy in the Lehigh Valley region. Bernard J. Story, the President and CEO of the Lehigh Valley Community Foundation, is a member of the board of directors of Saucon Mutual, but will receive no compensation directly tied to the Converted Insurance Company’s contribution. The Lehigh Valley Community Foundation will be entitled to receive a fee for maintaining the Saucon Insurance Company Foundation Fund. Saucon Mutual determined that the contribution to the Lehigh Valley Community Foundation was more cost-effective and straightforward than establishing a de novo foundation.

The Lehigh Valley Community Foundation will make disbursements from that fund from time to time for charitable purposes in accordance with recommendations made by the contribution committee of the Converted Insurance Company’s board of directors. The members of that contribution committee will not receive compensation for serving on that committee or attending its gift recommendation meetings.

V. STOCK OFFERING OF SAUCON HOLDING

A. Saucon Holding

Concurrently with the other transactions contemplated by the Conversion, Saucon Holding will issue and sell shares of its common stock to investors in accordance with the following stock offering plan which has been approved by the Board of Directors of Saucon Mutual (the “Stock Offering”):

1. The investors will be the eight members of the board of directors and a ninth individual who is a member of management of Saucon Mutual. Those individuals have given to Saucon Mutual non-binding expressions of their interest in purchasing all of the Saucon Holding shares that are being offered. The limitation of the scope of the offerees who may participate in the Stock Offering helps to minimize the costs and expenses of the Stock Offering and to enable Saucon Holding to avoid incurring the costs and expenses of registering under federal and state securities laws and operating as a public company.
2. Among those nine investors, three have indicated an interest in acquiring more than 10% of the Saucon Holding shares. Accordingly, those investors are filing a Form A with the Department concurrently with the filing of this Plan. Saucon Mutual expects that those three investors will acquire, in the aggregate, approximately 91% of the Saucon Holding shares that will be offered, and the other six investors will acquire, in the aggregate, the remaining Saucon Holding shares that will be offered. If for any reason any of the six smaller investors fails to purchase at closing the number of Saucon Holding shares that they had indicated an interest in purchasing, it is expected that those shares will be re-allocated among the other investors—each of the largest three investors has indicated a readiness to purchase additional Saucon Holding shares if they became available at closing. For this reason, Saucon Mutual has a high degree of confidence that all of the Saucon Holding shares that will be offered in the Stock Offering will be purchased by the investors, in the aggregate, at the closing.

3. The Stock Offering will consist of the issuance and sale of 3,250,000 shares of Saucon Holding's common stock, par value $0.01 per share, at a purchase price of $1.00 per share. The Saucon Holding shares will be issued and sold to the investors described above on the Effective Date. As a result, Saucon Holding will receive $3,250,000 in gross proceeds from the Stock Offering.
4. The closing of the Stock Offering will be effected by (i) each investor entering into a binding subscription agreement with Saucon Holding dated as of the Effective Date with respect to the shares that the investor is subscribing for and purchasing, and (ii) that investor delivering to Saucon Holding the purchase price for those shares. In addition, simultaneously with the closing of the Stock Offering, each of the investors will enter into Saucon Holding's shareholders agreement, the form of which is attached hereto as Exhibit D. The closing of the Stock Offering and the receipt by Saucon Holdings of the $3,250,000 aggregate subscription amounts from the investors are conditions precedent to the effectiveness of the Conversion.
5. Saucon Holding will use the proceeds of the Stock Offering as follows: (i) Saucon Holding will purchase the capital stock of the Converted Insurance Company for $1,425,000 which means that the Converted Insurance Company will receive that amount; (ii) Saucon Holding will pay the costs and expenses related to this Plan and the transactions contemplated hereby; and (iii) Saucon Holding will retain the balance of the proceeds as a cash reserve.
6. The closing of the Stock Offering and the issuance and sale of the Saucon Holding stock to the investors will occur simultaneously with the amendment to Saucon Mutual's Articles of Incorporation that effects the conversion of Saucon Mutual into a stock insurance corporation.
7. Because Saucon Holding will not have issued any shares before the Conversion, the shares being issued to the investors in the Stock Offering will be all of the outstanding shares of Saucon Holding capital stock on the Effective Date. As a result, immediately after the closing of the Conversion, the investors in the Stock Offering will in the aggregate own all of the outstanding capital stock of Saucon Holding.

Upon the Closing, as a result of the Stock Offering, and the other transactions contemplated under this Plan, the primary assets of Saucon Holding will be (i) the capital stock of the Converted Insurance Company, (ii) the capital stock of the Agency, and (iii) the remaining net proceeds of the Stock Offering.

The Converted Insurance Company's surplus will continue to be adequate even after the payments to members in the aggregate amount of approximately $1,064,788 (assuming a June 30, 2015 closing date) as contemplated under the Conversion and discussed in Section IV.A. of this Plan, the contribution of $1,000,000 to Lehigh Valley Community Foundation as discussed in Section IV.C of this Plan, and the costs and expenses of the transactions contemplated under this Plan.

B. No Stock Offering of Converted Insurance Company

Other than the shares of capital stock of the Converted Insurance Company that are to be issued and sold to Saucon Holding on the Effective Date for a purchase price of $1,425,000 in accordance with Section II.B above, it is not anticipated that the Converted Insurance Company will issue shares of capital stock. Any such issuance of shares of capital stock of the Converted Insurance Company will be done under such circumstances and at such times and for such consideration as the Board of Directors of the Converted Insurance Company may determine after the Effective Date.

VI. EFFECT OF CONVERSION ON THE POLICIES, POLICYHOLDERS' RIGHTS, AND COMPANY'S RIGHTS/OBLIGATIONS

The insurance obligations of Saucon Mutual under any insurance policy issued or contract entered into by Saucon Mutual will not be changed, reduced or impaired and will continue to remain the insurance obligations of the Converted Insurance Company, except that the following rights of policyholders will be extinguished at the effective time of the Conversion: (1) all voting rights provided under the Saucon Mutual policies, the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of Saucon Mutual; and applicable law; and (2) any right to share in the surplus of Saucon Mutual or of the Converted Insurance Company provided for under any of the Saucon Mutual policies. Because of these changes in the policyholders' rights, Saucon Insurance Company will prepare either new declarations and/or an amendatory endorsement for its insurance policies and will deliver them to the policyholders following the closing.

With respect to the other rights and obligations of the Converted Insurance Company, on the Effective Date, all the property, real, personal and mixed, and franchises of Saucon Mutual, and all debts due on whatever account to it, including choses in action belonging to it, shall be deemed without further action to be vested in and shall belong to the Converted Insurance Company, and the title to any real estate, or any interest therein, vested in Saucon Mutual shall not revert or be in any way impaired by reason of the Conversion. The Converted Insurance Company shall thenceforth be responsible for all of the liabilities of Saucon Mutual. Liens upon the property of Saucon Mutual shall not be impaired by the Conversion, and any claim existing or action or proceeding pending by or against Saucon Mutual may be prosecuted to judgment as if the Conversion had not taken place, but the Converted Insurance Company may be proceeded against or substituted in its place. Any taxes, interest, penalties and public accounts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania claimed against Saucon Mutual that are settled, assessed or determined prior to, concurrently with or after the Conversion shall be the liability of the Converted Insurance Company and, together with interest thereon, shall be a lien against the franchises and property, both real and personal, of the Converted Insurance Company.

VII. SPECIAL MEETING OF ELIGIBLE MEMBERS

Following the Department's approval of the Plan, a special meeting to vote on this Plan shall be held by Saucon Mutual in accordance with its bylaws and applicable law (the "Special Meeting"). Notice of the Special Meeting will be given by Saucon Mutual to Eligible Members by mailing: (i) a notice of the Special Meeting; (ii) a Member Information Statement in the form attached to this application; (iii) a form of proxy in the form attached to this application authorized for use by the Department under which an Eligible Member may vote in favor of the Conversion; and (iv) a copy of the Plan filed with the Department (those materials collectively "Member Information Package"). The form of Member Information Package that has been attached to this application contains placeholders in place of the date of the Special Meeting, as the date of the Special Meeting will not be determined until after the Department approves the Plan. These documents will be sent to each Eligible Member at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the Special Meeting.

Eligible Members may vote on the Plan in person at the Special Meeting or by proxy. In accordance with the bylaws of Saucon Mutual, each Eligible Member may cast one vote. The Plan must be approved by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of the votes cast at a meeting of Eligible Members of Saucon Mutual called for the purpose of considering and voting upon the Plan. In addition, the amended articles of incorporation of Saucon Mutual will be considered for adoption during the special meeting, and shall require the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the votes cast by Eligible Members.

VIII. INSURANCE DEPARTMENT APPROVAL

A. Public Hearing

This Plan will be submitted to the Department, which may order a hearing on whether the terms of this Plan comply with Pennsylvania law, including the Conversion Act. If a hearing is ordered by the Department, it is required by law to give written notice to Saucon Mutual and other interested persons, all of whom have the right to appear at the hearing.

B. Department Approval of Plan

The Department will approve the Plan if the Department finds that the Plan does not prejudice the interests of the members, is fair and equitable, and complies with the Conversion Act. Since subscription rights will not be issued, no determination by the Department will be required in connection therewith.

C. Department Approval of Intended Name

Saucon Mutual is requesting that the Department approve "Saucon Insurance Company" as the intended name of the converted insurance company.

D. Department Approval of Member Information Package Materials

Saucon Mutual requests that the Department approve the Member Information Package described in Section VII above so that, as promptly as practicable following the Department's approval of the Plan, Saucon Mutual may call and hold a special meeting of the Eligible Members to approve the Plan.

E. Department Approval of Form A

As part of the proposed conversion, Saucon Holding Company, Brian T. Regan, Michael G. Crofton, and Martin C. Gilchrist (the “Applicants”) will acquire “control” of the Converted Insurance Company. An Amended and Restated Form A for this change in control was submitted to the Department together with the submission of this Plan as part of the application described in Section I. Saucon Mutual requests that the Department approve the Form A.

F. Notice of Dividend or Other Distribution

Immediately after the filing of the amendment to the Articles of Incorporation that converts Saucon Mutual into the Converted Insurance Company, the Converted Insurance Company will distribute to Saucon Holding (as its sole stockholder) all of the capital stock of the Agency as described in Section II.B.6. This will result in Saucon Holding, rather than the Converted Insurance Company, becoming the direct sole stockholder of the Agency. The capital stock of the Agency is booked on Saucon Holding’s balance sheet at $1.00. The distribution of the Agency stock by the Converted Insurance Company to Saucon Holding will not be an extraordinary dividend as the value of the stock to be distributed ($1) is less than ten percent (10%) of Converted Insurance Company’s surplus as shown on its last annual statement ($16,434,269) or its net income as shown on such statement ($295,226). Neither the Converted Insurance Company nor Saucon Mutual will have made any other dividends within the 12-month period preceding this distribution. In accordance with 40 P.S. § 991.1404(e), Saucon Mutual hereby provides notice to the Department of this dividend from the Converted Insurance Company to Saucon Holding.

IX. POLICIES ISSUED AFTER ADOPTION OF PLAN

Saucon Mutual will not issue any insurance policies between the date that its Board of Directors adopts this Plan and the earlier of (i) the Effective Date or (ii) the abandonment of this Plan in accordance with the Conversion Act. Accordingly, no notices contemplated under Section 40 P.S. § 913-A(b)(4) of the Conversion Act will be given.

X. ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION & BYLAWS OF THE CONVERTED INSURANCE COMPANY

Concurrently with the closing of the Conversion, the Articles of Incorporation of Saucon Mutual will be amended and restated in the form attached hereto as Exhibit C in order to change the name of the Converted Insurance Company to “Saucon Insurance Company” and for other purposes, and will thereafter be the Articles of Incorporation of the Converted Insurance Company unless and until amended, restated or superseded in accordance with applicable law. The amendment to the articles of incorporation will be submitted to Saucon Mutual’s members for approval in accordance with 40 P.S. § 913-A(h), as described in Section VII above.

The Articles of Incorporation of the Converted Insurance Company will provide for 1,000 authorized shares of capital stock, par value $950.00 per share. The Converted Insurance Company will issue and sell those 1,000 authorized shares to Saucon Holding for an aggregate purchase price of $1,425,000. The Converted Insurance Company will record proceeds of that issuance and sale of its capital stock as follows: $950,000 as paid-in capital (i.e., 1,000 shares times $950.00 par value per share) and $475,000 as paid-in surplus, with the result that the statutory minimum amounts of capital and of paid-in and contributed surplus for the Converted Insurance Company's lines will have been satisfied.

Concurrently with the closing of the Conversion, the Bylaws of Saucon Mutual will be amended and restated in the form attached hereto as Exhibit E and will thereafter be the Bylaws of the Converted Insurance Company unless and until amended, restated or superseded in accordance with applicable law. The Bylaws of the Converted Insurance Company will provide for term limits and other qualification requirements that are substantially the same as those that are presently applicable to the board of directors of Saucon Mutual. However, the closing of the Conversion will result in the "reset" of term limits so that all directors of the Converted Insurance Company will be considered to be serving their first term. Furthermore, the Bylaws of the Converted Insurance Company establish a contribution committee of the board of directors that will make recommendations regarding distributions from the Saucon Insurance Company Foundation Fund. Members of the contribution committee will not be compensated for their services on that committee. Finally, the minimum number of directors on the Audit Committee and the Nominating and Compensation Committee will be reduced from 3 to 2 directors.

XI. DIRECTORS & OFFICERS

The directors and officers of Saucon Mutual immediately prior to the Effective Date will continue to serve as the directors and officers of the Converted Insurance Company. As of the date that this Plan was adopted, the directors and officers of Saucon Mutual were the individuals identified in the form attached hereto as Exhibit F. For purposes of staggering their three-year terms of office, the bylaws of the Converted Insurance Company divide the Board of Directors into three classes. Exhibit F identifies each director's class and the year that the director's term will expire. Each director will remain in the same class, as a director of the Converted Insurance Company, as he or she was in as a director of Saucon Mutual. As a result, the expiration date of the term of office of each director of the Converted Insurance Company will be the same date that the director's current term of office would have expired had the conversion not taken place. Effective as of the Effective Date, the membership of committees of the Converted Insurance Company's board of directors will be adjusted so as to ensure that each committee's membership includes the requisite proportion of independent directors. VI. INDEMNIFICATION OF DIRECTORS AND OFFICERS.

Section 1. General Rule. The Company shall indemnify each Indemnitee against all Liabilities to the fullest extent permitted by Pennsylvania law.

A. Advance Payment of Expenses. The right to indemnification provided in this Article VI shall include the right to have expenses (including attorneys' fees and disbursements) incurred by the Indemnitee in defending any Proceeding paid by the Company in advance of the final disposition of the Proceeding to the fullest extent permitted by Pennsylvania law; provided that, if Pennsylvania law continues so to require, the payment of such expenses incurred by the Indemnitee in advance of the final disposition of a Proceeding shall be made only upon receipt by the Company of an undertaking, by or on behalf of the Indemnitee, to repay all amounts so advanced without interest if it shall ultimately be determined that the Indemnitee is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company under this Section or otherwise.

B. Continuing Right to Indemnification. Indemnification pursuant to this Article VI shall continue as to an Indemnitee who has ceased to be either a Director or officer or a representative of the Company and shall inure to the benefit of his or her heirs and personal representatives.

C. Definitions. For purposes of this Article VI, (A) "Indemnitee" shall mean each person who was or is a party to, or is threatened to be made a party to, or is otherwise involved in, any Proceeding, by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a Director or officer of the Company or is or was serving at the request or for the benefit of the Company as a representative of another domestic or foreign corporation for profit or not-for-profit, partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise; (B) "Liability" or "Liabilities" shall mean all expenses (including attorneys' fees and disbursements), judgments, fines, losses, penalties and amounts paid or payable in settlement and incurred by an Indemnitee in connection with a Proceeding; and (C) "Proceeding" shall mean any threatened, pending or completed action, appeal or other proceeding of any nature, whether civil, criminal, administrative, investigative or through arbitration in which an Indemnitee is a party, a witness or otherwise involved.

Section 2. Indemnification of Representatives. The Company may, by action of the Board, and to the extent provided in such action, indemnify against Liabilities, as though such person is an Indemnitee, any person by reason of the fact that such person is or was a representative of the Company or was serving at the request of the Company as a representative of another entity.

Section 3. Mandatory Indemnification. To the extent that a representative of the Company has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any Proceeding or otherwise in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, the Company shall indemnify such person against any Liability incurred by such person in connection with the Proceeding.

Section 4. Non-Exclusivity of Rights. The rights to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses provided in this Article VI shall not be exclusive of any other rights that any person may have or hereafter acquire under any statute, provision of the articles or bylaws, agreement, vote of shareholders or Directors, or otherwise.

Section 5. Insurance. The Company shall purchase and maintain insurance, at its expense, for the benefit of any person on behalf of whom insurance is permitted to be purchased by Pennsylvania law against any Liability, whether or not the Company would have the power to indemnify such person under Pennsylvania or other law. The Company may also purchase and maintain insurance to insure its indemnification obligations whether arising hereunder or otherwise.

Section 6. Fund for Payment of Expenses. The Company may create a fund of any nature, which may, but need not be, under the control of a trustee, or otherwise may secure in any manner its indemnification obligations, whether arising hereunder or otherwise.

Section 7. Amendment. The provisions of this Article VI relating to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses shall constitute a contract between the Company and each Indemnitee that may be modified as to any Indemnitee only with that person's consent or as specifically provided in this Section. Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws relating to their amendment generally, any repeal or amendment of this Article VI that is adverse to any Indemnitee shall apply to such Indemnitee only on a prospective basis, and shall not reduce any limitation on the personal liability of a Director of the Company, or limit the rights of an Indemnitee to indemnification or to the advancement of expenses with respect to any action or failure to act occurring prior to the time of such repeal or amendment. Notwithstanding any other provision of these bylaws, no repeal or amendment of these bylaws shall affect any or all of this Article VI so as either to reduce the limitation of Directors' liability or limit indemnification or the advancement of expenses in any manner unless adopted by the unanimous vote of the Directors of the Company then serving, provided that no such amendment shall have retroactive effect inconsistent with the preceding sentence.

Section 8. Changes in Pennsylvania Law. References in this Article VI to Pennsylvania law or to any provision thereof shall be to such law as it existed on the date this Article VI was adopted or as such law thereafter may be changed; provided that (a) in the case of any change that expands the liability of Directors or limits the indemnification rights or the rights to advancement of expenses that the Company may provide, the rights to limited liability, to indemnification and to the advancement of expenses provided in this Article VI shall continue as theretofore to the extent permitted by law; and (b) if such change permits the Company without the requirement of any further action by Directors or shareholders to limit further the liability of Directors (or limit the liability of officers) or to provide broader indemnification rights or rights to the advancement of expenses than the Company was permitted to provide prior to such change, then liability thereupon shall be so limited and the rights to indemnification and the advancement of expenses shall be so broadened to the extent permitted by law.

VII. STOCK

Section 1. Certificates of Stock. Every holder of stock in the Company shall be entitled to have a certificate signed in the name of the Company by the president or a vice president and by the treasurer or an assistant treasurer or the secretary or an assistant secretary of the Company, certifying the number of shares owned by such shareholder in the Company; provided however that where such certificate is signed (1) by a transfer agent or an assistant transfer agent or (2) by a transfer clerk acting on behalf of the Company and a registrar, the signature of the president, vice president, treasurer, assistant treasurer secretary or assistant secretary may be facsimile. In case any officer who has signed or whose facsimile signature has been placed on such certificate or certificates shall have ceased to be such officer before such certificate or certificates are issued, they may be issued by the Company with the same effect as if such officer had not ceased to be such at the time of their issue. Certificates of stock shall be in such form as shall, in conformity to law, be prescribed from time to time by the board of directors.

Section 2. Replacement of Certificates. In case of the alleged loss, destruction or mutilation of a certificate of stock, a duplicate certificate may be issued in place thereof, upon such terms as the board of directors may prescribe.

Section 3. Transfer of Shares of Stock. Subject to the restrictions, if any, imposed by the Articles, title to a certificate of stock and to the shares represented thereby shall be transferred only by delivery of the certificate properly endorsed, or by delivery of the certificate accompanied by a written assignment of the same, or a written power of attorney to sell, assign, or transfer the same or the shares represented thereby, properly executed; but the person registered on the books of the Company as the owner of shares shall have the exclusive right to receive dividends thereon and to vote thereon as such owner, shall be held liable for such calls and assessments, if any, as may lawfully be made thereon, and except only as may be required by law may in all respects be treated by the Company and its transfer agents and registrars, if any, as the exclusive owner thereof. It shall be the duty of each shareholder to notify the Company of the shareholder's post office address.

Section 4. Transfer Books. The board of directors shall have the power to close the stock transfer books of the Company for a period not exceeding sixty days preceding the date of any meeting of shareholders or the date for payments of any dividend or the date for the allotment of rights or the date when any change or conversion or exchange of capital stock shall go into effect or the date for obtaining the consent of shareholders for any purpose; provided, however, that in lieu of closing the stock transfer books as aforesaid, the board of directors may fix in advance a date not exceeding fifty days preceding the date of any meeting of the shareholders, or the date of any other of the above-mentioned events, as a record date from the determination of the shareholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, any such meeting, or entitled to receive payment of any such dividend, or to any such allotment of rights or to exercise the rights in respect of any such change, conversion or exchange of capital stock or to give such consent, and in such case such shareholders and only such shareholders as shall be shareholders of record on the date so fixed shall be entitled to such notice of, and to vote at, such meeting, or to receive payment of such dividend, or to receive such allotment of rights, or to exercise such rights or to give such consent, as the case may be, notwithstanding any transfer of any stock on the books of the Company after such record date fixed as aforesaid.

Section 5. Issuance of Stock. Unless otherwise voted by the shareholders, the whole or any part of any unissued balance of the authorized capital stock of the Company, may be issued pursuant to vote of the board of directors to such persons, for such consideration, whether cash, property, goodwill, services or expenses, or as a stock dividend, and on such terms as the board of directors may determine from time to time and without first offering the same for subscription to shareholders of the Company.

VIII. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Section 1. Dividends. Subject to any applicable provisions of law and the Articles, dividends upon the capital stock of the Company may be declared by the board of directors at any regular or special meeting. Dividends may be paid in cash, in property, or in shares of the capital stock.

Section 2. Seal. The corporate seal of the Company shall, subject to alteration by the board of directors, consist of a flat-faced circular die with the word "Pennsylvania", together with the name of the Company and the year of its organization cut or engraved thereon. The corporate seal of the Company may be used by causing it or a facsimile thereof to be impressed or affixed or reproduced or otherwise.

Section 3. Evidence of Authority. A certificate of the secretary or assistant secretary or a temporary secretary as to any action taken by the shareholders, directors or any officer or representative of the Company shall, as to all persons who rely thereon in good faith, be conclusive evidence of such action. The exercise of any power which by law, by the Articles or by these by-laws, or under any vote of the shareholders or the board of directors, may be exercised by an officer of the Company only in the event of absence of another officer or any other contingency, shall bind the company in favor of anyone relying thereon in good faith, whether or not such absence or contingency existed.

Section 4. Fiscal Year. The fiscal year of the Company shall be the calendar year.

Section 5. Voting of Securities. Powers of attorney, proxies, waivers of notice of meeting, consents and other instruments relating to securities owned by the Company may be executed in the name of and on behalf of the Company by the chairman of the board, if any, the president, the treasurer or the secretary, and any such officer may, in the name of and on behalf of the Company, take all such action as any such officer may deem advisable to vote in person or by proxy at any meeting of security holders of any corporation in which the Company may own securities and at any such meeting shall possess and may exercise any and all rights and powers incident to the ownership of such securities and which, as the owner thereof, the Company might have exercised and possessed if present. The board of directors may, by resolution, from time to time confer like powers upon any other person or persons.

Section 6. Amendments. These bylaws may be altered or amended by the affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by the shareholders at a regular or special meeting called for that purpose or by an affirmative vote of a majority of the Board from time to time as may be necessary in their judgment for the prudent and efficient government of the affairs of the Company. Any alterations or amendments by the Board shall be subject to ratification by the shareholders of the Company at the next Annual or Special Meeting called for that purpose, provided the notice of such meeting shall set out the amendment or alteration proposed to be adopted.

ARTICLE II
PRE-EMPTIVE RIGHTS

Section 2.01 Pre-emptive Right.

(a) Issuance of New Securities. The Company hereby grants to each Shareholder a separate right to purchase its Pro Rata Portion (subject to its over-allotment option in Section 2.01(d) below) of any New Securities that the Company may from time to time propose to issue or sell to any party; provided, that the provisions of this Section 2.01 will not apply to any Excluded Issuance.

(b) Additional Issuance Notices. The Company shall give written notice (an “Issuance Notice”) of any proposed issuance or sale of New Securities described in Section 2.01(a) to the Shareholders within 5 days following any meeting of the Board at which any such issuance or sale is approved. If applicable, the Issuance Notice is to be accompanied by a written offer from any prospective purchaser seeking to purchase the applicable New Securities (a “Prospective Purchaser”) and is to set forth the material terms and conditions of the proposed issuance or sale, including:

- (i) the number and description of New Securities proposed to be issued;
- (ii) the proposed issuance date, which is to be at least twenty (20) days from the date of the Issuance Notice;
- (iii) the proposed purchase price per share of New Securities and all other material terms of the offer or sale; and
- (iv) if the consideration to be paid by the Prospective Purchaser includes non-cash consideration, the fair market value thereof, as determined in good faith by the Board.

(c) Exercise of Pre-emptive Rights. Each Shareholder will for a period of 10 days following the receipt of an Issuance Notice (the “Pre-emptive Exercise Period”) have the right to elect irrevocably to purchase all or any portion of its Pro Rata Portion of any New Securities on the terms and conditions, including the purchase price, set forth in the Issuance Notice by delivering a written notice to the Company (a “Pre-emptive Acceptance Notice”) specifying the number of New Securities it desires to purchase up to its Pro Rata Portion. The delivery of a Pre-emptive Acceptance Notice by a Shareholder will be a binding and irrevocable offer by such Shareholder to purchase the New Securities described therein. The failure of a Shareholder to deliver a Pre-emptive Acceptance Notice by the end of the Pre-emptive Exercise Period will constitute a waiver of its rights under this Section 2.01(c) with respect to the purchase of such New Securities, but will not affect its rights with respect to any future issuances or sales of New Securities.

(d) Over-allotment. No later than 5 days following the expiration of the Pre-emptive Exercise Period, the Company shall give written notice (the “Over-allotment Notice”) to each Shareholder specifying the number of New Securities that each Shareholder has agreed to purchase (including, for the avoidance of doubt, where such number is zero) and the aggregate number of remaining New Securities, if any, not elected to be purchased by the Shareholders pursuant to Section 2.01(c) (the “Remaining New Securities”). Each Shareholder exercising its rights to purchase its Pro Rata Portion of the New Securities in full (a “Fully Exercising Shareholder”) will have a right of over-allotment such that if there are any Remaining New Securities, such Fully Exercising Shareholder may purchase all or any portion of its pro rata portion of the Remaining New Securities, based on the relative Pro Rata Portions of all Fully Exercising Shareholders. Each Fully Exercising Shareholder may elect to purchase its allotment of Remaining New Securities by giving written notice to the Company specifying the number of Remaining New Securities it desires to purchase within 5 days of receipt of the Over-allotment Notice (the “Over-allotment Exercise Period”).

(e) Sales to the Prospective Purchaser. Following the expiration of the Pre-emptive Exercise Period and, if applicable, the Over-allotment Exercise Period, the Company will be free to complete the proposed issuance or sale of New Securities described in the Issuance Notice with respect to which Shareholders declined to exercise the pre-emptive right set forth in this Section 2.01 on terms no less favorable to the Company than those set forth in the Issuance Notice (except that the amount of New Securities to be issued or sold by the Company may be reduced); provided, that: (i) such issuance or sale is closed within 60 days after the expiration of the Pre-emptive Exercise Period and, if applicable, the Over-allotment Exercise Period; and (ii) for the avoidance of doubt, the price at which the New Securities are sold to the Prospective Purchaser is at least equal to or higher than the purchase price described in the Issuance Notice. In the event the Company has not sold such New Securities within such time period, the Company may not thereafter issue or sell any New Securities without first again offering such securities to the Shareholders in accordance with the procedures set forth in this Section 2.01.

(f) Closing of the Issuance. The closing of any purchase by any Shareholder is to be consummated concurrently with the consummation of the issuance or sale described in the Issuance Notice. Upon the issuance or sale of any New Securities in accordance with this Section 2.01, the Company shall deliver the New Securities in certificated form, free and clear of any liens (other than those arising hereunder and those attributable to the actions of the purchasers thereof), and the Company shall so represent and warrant to the purchasers thereof, and further represent and warrant to such purchasers that such New Securities will be, upon issuance thereof to such purchasers and after payment therefor, duly authorized, validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable. Each Shareholder shall deliver to the Company the purchase price for the New Securities purchased by it by certified or bank check or wire transfer of immediately available funds. Each party to the purchase and sale of New Securities shall take all such other actions as may be reasonably necessary to consummate the purchase and sale including, without limitation, entering into such additional agreements as may be necessary or appropriate.

ARTICLE III

Section 3.01 Death of Shareholder. Upon the death of a Shareholder, the Shareholder's personal representative may, within 60 days following the date of death, deliver a written notice to the Company (the "Deceased Shareholder Put Notice"), whereupon the Company shall purchase all of the deceased Shareholder's shares of capital stock of the Company at the price and on the terms set forth in Section 3.03. If no Deceased Shareholder Put Notice is delivered by the personal representative of a deceased Shareholder within the aforesaid 60-day period, then the Company will not be obligated to purchase that deceased Shareholder's shares under this Article III.

Section 3.02 Termination of Shareholder's Status as a Director or Officer of the Company. If a Shareholder is a director or an officer of the Company and, for any reason, that Shareholder's status as a director or officer of the Company terminates, then within the time period specified in Section 3.03 the Company may, but subject to Section 3.01 will not be required to, purchase all of the affected Shareholder's shares of capital stock of the Company at the price and on the terms set forth in Section 3.03.

At the closing, the Company shall pay the purchase price for the shares in question either, at the Company's option, in a lump sum in cash or in the form of the Company's promissory note providing for principal payments in five equal annual installments on the first, second, third, fourth and fifth anniversaries of the closing date, with each installment bearing interest at the mid-term applicable federal rate in effect on the closing date. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if at any time the Board determines in good faith that the Company does not have sufficient available cash to pay in full, or is restricted by law from paying in full, any installment due on any note described in this Section 3.03, the Company may defer the payment of that installment until such time as the Board determines in good faith that the Company has sufficient available cash to pay that installment or is otherwise permitted by law to pay it, whereupon the Company will pay it. Each Shareholder hereby irrevocably appoints the officers of the Company as such Shareholder's true and lawful attorney in the name, place and stead of such Shareholder, such appointment being coupled with an interest, to execute, sign, acknowledge and file all papers which are necessary or desirable to effect any sale of that Shareholder's shares under this Section 3.03.

Section 3.04 Life Insurance. The Company may, but will not be required to, procure and maintain a life insurance policy with respect to any one or more Shareholders in order to permit the Company to apply the proceeds of such insurance policy to the purchase price for shares under Section 3.01. If the proceeds of any such insurance policy exceed the purchase price for such Shareholder's shares, the Company may retain the excess.

For a period of 30 days following the receipt of an Additional Allotment Availability Notice (such period, the “Additional Allotment Option Period”), each Exercising Shareholder may elect to purchase all or any portion of remaining Offered Stock by delivering a written notice to the Company and the Offering Shareholder (an “Additional Allotment Exercise Notice”) specifying the number(s) and type(s) of additional remaining Offered Stock it desires to purchase on the terms and applicable purchase price(s) set forth in the First Offer Notice. The Additional Allotment Exercise Notice will be binding upon delivery and irrevocable by the Exercising Shareholder.

(v) The failure of the Company or any Shareholder to deliver a Company Exercise Notice or a Shareholder Exercise Notice, respectively, by the end of the Company Option Period or the Shareholder Option Period, respectively, will constitute a waiver by the Company or that Shareholder, as applicable, of the applicable rights of first refusal under this Section 4.03 with respect to the Transfer of the Offered Stock pursuant to that First Offer Notice, but will not affect their respective rights with respect to any future Transfers.

(f) Allocation of Offered Stock. Upon the expiration of the Shareholder Option Period or, if applicable, the expiration of the Additional Allotment Option Period, the remaining Offered Stock not selected for purchase in its entirety by the Company pursuant to Section 4.03(e)(ii) is to be allocated for purchase among the Exercising Shareholders in accordance with their respective Pro Rata Portions or as they may otherwise mutually agree.

(g) Consummation of Sale to the Company and/or Other Shareholders. If the Company and/or the other Shareholders have, in the aggregate, exercised their respective rights to purchase any of the Offered Stock, then the Offering Shareholder shall sell such Offered Stock to the Company and/or such other Shareholders, and the Company and/or such other Shareholders, as the case may be, shall purchase such Offered Stock, within 60 days following the expiration of the Shareholder Option Period or, if applicable, the Additional Allotment Option Period (either of which period may be extended for a reasonable time to the extent reasonably necessary to make any required filings with and/or obtain required approvals or consents from, the Pennsylvania Insurance Department and/or any other Governmental Authority). Each Shareholder shall take all actions as may be reasonably necessary to consummate the sale contemplated by this Section 4.03(g), including, without limitation, entering into agreements and delivering certificates and instruments and consents as may be deemed necessary or appropriate. At the closing of any sale and purchase pursuant to this Section 4.03(g), the Offering Shareholder shall deliver to the Company and/or the participating Shareholders certificates representing the Offered Stock to be sold, free and clear of any liens or encumbrances (other than those contained in this Agreement), accompanied by evidence of transfer, against receipt of the purchase price therefor from the Company and/or such Shareholders by certified or official bank check or by wire transfer of immediately available funds.

(h) Sale to Third Party. If the Company and/or the other Shareholders have not collectively elected to purchase all of the Offered Stock, then, provided the Offering Shareholder has also complied with the provisions of Section 4.01, to the extent applicable, the Offering Shareholder may Transfer the remaining Offered Stock to a third party, at a price per share not less than that specified in the First Offer Notice and on other terms and conditions which are not materially more favorable in the aggregate to the purchaser than those specified in the First Offer Notice, but only to the extent that such Transfer occurs within 90 days after expiration of the Shareholder Option Period or, if applicable, the Additional Allotment Option Period. Any Offered Stock not Transferred within such 90-day period will be subject to the provisions of this Section 4.03 upon subsequent Transfer.
