

I support the Governor's recommendations protecting patients from surprise medical bills. No one should be expected to ask during an operation or emergency treatment, who is in their insurance network. It is obscene to go to an emergency room and be charged with a doctor that will not accept your insurance, when the hospital does. I suggest the hospital pay for any doctors they allow on staff at their hospitals who are necessary for the patient in any situation, especially emergency.

Marlene Hoyler

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]