

I support the Governor's recommendations protecting patients from surprise medical bills. No one should be expected to ask during an operation or emergency treatment, who is in their insurance network. Insurance should ensure that appropriate treatment is covered regardless whether it is in or out of "network"many of us are incapable of asking for such assurances when in the throes of medical treatment.

Katharine Levensgood

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]