

I wholeheartedly approve of the proposal to constrain the practice of balance billing for out of network providers. "Surprise" hidden charges of this kind are an unjust, not to say immoral, imposition on those seeking health care and I would like to see the practice abolished nationwide.

Patrick O'Kane, MD
Associate Professor of Radiology
Thomas Jefferson University Hospital
Philadelphia PA