RETALIATORY STATEMENT

The following information regarding admission requirements is furnished by this Department to life and health insurance companies organized under the laws of other states desiring to qualify to do business in Pennsylvania under the provisions of Section 301 of the Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 682.

Non-refundable APPLICATION FEE of $2,500.00 must accompany submission of filing.

Minimum fees chargeable upon granting the license to the company as prescribed in Section 211 of the Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 789, as amended, are:

Fee for filing charter	$ 300.00
Fee for filing financial statement	750.00	(per financial statement)
Fee for company license	100.00
TOTAL	$ 1,150.00

ANNUAL RENEWAL FEES:

Fee for filing financial statement	$ 750.00
Certificate of Authority	100.00
TOTAL	$ 850.00

Subject to retaliatory provisions for any other or greater charges

The fees thus listed are minimum and subject to retaliatory increase or other charges (upon an aggregate basis, not fee for fee basis), in accordance with the provisions of Section 212 of the aforementioned Act.

Minimum financial requirements in accordance with Section 401 of the Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 682, as amended, requires a minimum capital in the amount of $1,000,000 and a surplus in the amount of $500,000. If the company wishes to transact accident and health, an additional $100,000 capital and $50,000 surplus is required.

If the statutes of the state in which the company was organized, or the requirements of the Insurance Department impose other or additional obligations for a similar Pennsylvania company to transact a like kind of business in such state, the same would also be required of the company applying for admission to this Commonwealth.

A tax at the rate of 2% is assessed upon gross premiums and annuity considerations received from business transacted within Pennsylvania annually. Gross Premiums, whether received in money or in the form of notes, credits, or any other substitute for money or whether the same were collected in this Commonwealth or elsewhere, are subject to the tax. Deductible are all premiums returned on policies cancelled or not taken or premiums actually received from reinsurance.

Life insurance companies may also deduct dividends declared and actually used by policyholders in payment of renewal premiums. A stock company with participating features in addition to the aforesaid deductions may deduct that portion of the premiums returned to the policyholders. Mutual companies, associations, and exchanges, may deduct that portion of the advance premiums or deposits returned to members upon the expiration or termination of their contracts.

Retaliatory provisions for other or greater charges by other states. Tax statement must be filed on or before April 15 and payable on that date to the Department of Revenue, Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Pursuant to the "Aggregate Rule" prescribed in Section 212 of the Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 789, as amended, an insurance company of another state shall not be required to pay any taxes and fees which are greater in aggregate amount than those which would be imposed by the laws of such other state.

All other charges, taxes, and fees, including capital stock tax, fire marshal's tax, etc., (State kinds, basis of computation, and dates payable) -NONE-
