CONSENT ORDER

AND NOW, this 1st day of February, 2005, this Order is hereby issued by the Deputy Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania pursuant to the statutes cited above and in disposition of the matter captioned above.

1. Respondent hereby admits and acknowledges that he has received proper notice of his rights to a formal administrative hearing pursuant to the Administrative Agency Law, 2 Pa.C.S.A. § 101, et seq., or other applicable law.
2. Respondent hereby waives all rights to a formal administrative hearing in this matter, and agrees that this Consent Order, and the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contained herein, shall have the full force and effect of an Order duly entered in accordance with the adjudicatory procedures set forth in the Administrative Agency Law, supra, or other applicable law.

FINDINGS OF FACT

3. The Deputy Insurance Commissioner finds true and correct each of the following Findings of Fact:
- (a) Respondent is Patrick J. Cunningham, and maintains his address at 1043 West 185th Place, Homewood, Illinois 60430.
 - (b) Respondent did not possess a Pennsylvania insurance producer license.
 - (c) Respondent procured surplus lines insurance for a Pennsylvania policyholder, PGT Trucking, Incorporated, Monaco, Pennsylvania, although he possessed no Pennsylvania insurance licenses.
 - (d) The surplus lines insurance policy, #IX6390920, was procured from General Star Insurance Company, effective September 26, 2003, through John S. Willsey, a surplus lines licensee.

- (e) Subsequent to procuring the surplus lines insurance for PGT Trucking, Respondent submitted a signed due-diligence affidavit, dated October 20, 2003, through John S. Willsey, using his social security number in lieu of a producer license number. The due-diligence affidavit indicated three licensed insurers had declined to issue the coverage in the admitted market.
- (f) On October 1, 2004, Respondent confirmed the aforementioned information.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

4. In accord with the above Findings of Fact and applicable provisions of law, the Deputy Insurance Commissioner concludes and finds the following Conclusions of Law:

- (a) Respondent is subject to the jurisdiction of the Pennsylvania Insurance Department.
- (b) Section 603-A of Act 147 of 2002 (40 P.S. 310.3(a)), prohibits a person from acting as a producer unless he obtains a certificate from the Insurance Department reflecting the lines of authority for the kinds of insurance for which he intends to act as producer.

- (c) Respondent's activities described above in paragraphs 3(c) through 3(f) constitute acting as an insurance producer without a certificate of qualification, in violation of Section 603-A of Act 147 of 2003 (40 P.S. §310.3(a)).
- (d) Section 611-A(20) of Act 147 of 2002 prohibits a licensee from demonstrating a lack of general fitness, competence or reliability sufficient to satisfy the department that the licensee is worthy of licensure (40 P.S. § 310.11).
- (e) Respondent's activities described above in paragraphs 3(c) through 3(f) violate Section 611-A(20) of Act 147 of 2002.
- (f) Respondent's violations of Sections 603-A and 611-A(20) of Act 147 are punishable by the following, under Section 691-A of Act 147 of 2003 (40 P.S. § 310.91):
- (i) suspension, revocation or refusal to issue the certificate of qualification or license;
 - (ii) imposition of a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars ($5,000.00) for every violation of the Act;
 - (iii) an order to cease and desist; and
 - (iv) any other conditions as the Commissioner deems appropriate.

ORDER

5. In accord with the above Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the Deputy Insurance Commissioner orders and Respondent consents to the following:

- (a) Respondent shall cease and desist from engaging in the activities described herein in the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law.

- (b) If Respondent should ever become licensed in the future, his certificates and licenses may be immediately suspended by the Department following its investigation and determination that (i) any terms of this Order have not been complied with, or (ii) any complaint against Respondent is accurate and a statute or regulation has been violated. The Department's right to act under (ii) above is limited to a period of three (3) years from the date of issuance of such certificates and licenses.

- (c) Respondent specifically waives his right to prior notice of said suspension, but will be entitled to a hearing upon written request received by the Department no later than thirty (30) days after the date the Department mailed to Respondent by certified mail, return receipt requested, notification of said suspension, which hearing shall be scheduled for a date within sixty (60) days of the Department's receipt of Respondent's written request.

(d) At the hearing referred to in paragraph (c) of this Order, Respondent shall have the burden of demonstrating that he is worthy of an insurance certificate and license.

(e) In the event Respondent's certificates and licenses are suspended pursuant to paragraph 5(b) above, and Respondent either fails to request a hearing within thirty (30) days or at the hearing fails to demonstrate that he is worthy of a certificate and license, Respondent's suspended certificates and licenses shall be revoked.

6. In the event the Deputy Insurance Commissioner finds that there has been a breach of any of the provisions of this Order, based upon the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contained herein, the Department may pursue any and all legal remedies available, including but not limited to the following: The Department may enforce the provisions of this Order in an administrative action pursuant to the Administrative Agency Law, supra, or other relevant provision of law; or, if applicable, the Department may enforce the provisions of this Order in any other court of law or equity having jurisdiction.

7. Alternatively, in the event the Deputy Commissioner finds that there has been a breach of any of the provisions of this Order, the Deputy Commissioner may declare this Order to be null and void and, thereupon, reopen the entire matter for appropriate action pursuant to the Administrative Agency Law, supra, or other relevant provision of law.

8. In any such enforcement proceeding, Respondent may contest whether a breach of the provisions of this Order has occurred but may not contest the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law contained herein.
