DECISION AND ORDER

AND NOW, on this 29th day of October, 2004, Stephen J. Johnson, Deputy Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (“Deputy Commissioner”), hereby makes the following Decision and Order:

Pursuant to the Insurance Holding Companies Act and in consideration of the documents, presentations, and reports received, as well as other inquiries and studies as permitted by law, the Deputy Commissioner hereby makes the following findings of fact:

FINDINGS OF FACT

Identity of Parties

1. Lakeland Insurance Company (“Lakeland”) is a stock property insurance company organized pursuant to the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with its principal place of business located in Cincinnati, Ohio.
2. Cincinnati Equitable Life Insurance Company (“Cincinnati Life”) is a stock life insurance company organized pursuant to the laws of the state of Ohio with its principal place of business located in Cincinnati, Ohio. Lakeland is a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Cincinnati Life.
3. Cincinnati Equitable Insurance Company (“Cincinnati Equitable”) is a stock property and casualty insurance company organized pursuant to the laws of the state of Ohio with its principal place of business located in Cincinnati, Ohio. Cincinnati Life is a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Cincinnati Equitable.

4. Joy S. Alpaugh, an individual, is the sole ultimate controlling person of the holding company system containing Lakeland.

Filing of the Request

5. On October 15, 2004, the Pennsylvania Insurance Department (“Department”) received an initial request (which together with all material received subsequently is collectively referenced as “Request”) from Cincinnati Equitable for approval to effectuate a corporate restructuring that would result in a change of direct control of Lakeland within its holding company system.
6. The Insurance Holding Companies Act, Article XIV of the Insurance Company Law of 1921, Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 682, as amended, 40 P.S. §§991.1401 et seq. (“Insurance Holding Companies Act”), provides that all changes in control of domestic insurers must be filed with the Department for approval or disapproval.
7. The Request was filed pursuant to Section 1402 of the Insurance Holding Companies Act.
8. Section 1402(g) of the Insurance Holding Companies Act provides for the exemption from the requirements of Section 1402(b) if the transaction:
 - a) does not have the effect of changing or influencing the control of a domestic insurer, or
 - b) is otherwise not comprehended within the purposes of the section.

The Transaction

9. As described in the Request, Cincinnati Life proposes to transfer all the issued and outstanding capital stock of Lakeland to Cincinnati Equitable.
10. As described in the Request, Lakeland would become a direct wholly-owned subsidiary of Cincinnati Equitable.
11. As described in the Request, Joy A. Alpaugh would remain the sole ultimate controlling person of Lakeland following the transfer.
12. The Deputy Commissioner finds that the transaction described in the Request does not have the effect of changing or influencing the control of a domestic insurer.
13. If any of the above Findings of Fact are determined to be Conclusions of Law, they shall be incorporated in the Conclusions of Law as if fully set forth therein.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Under Section 1402 of the Insurance Holding Companies Act, the Department has jurisdiction to review and approve the acquisition of controlling securities of a domestic insurer if, after consummation thereof, the acquiring person would be in control of the domestic insurer.
2. The Request was properly filed pursuant to and in accordance with Section 1402(g) of the Insurance Holding Companies Act.
3. The acquisition of common stock by Cincinnati Equitable as proposed in the Request is not being contemplated to change or influence the ultimate control of Lakeland, and, therefore, is exempt from the requirements of Section 1402(b) of the Insurance Holding Companies Act.
4. If any of the above Conclusions of Law are determined to be Findings of Fact, they shall be incorporated in the Findings of Fact as if fully set forth therein.
