DECISION AND ORDER

AND NOW, on this 18th day of July, 2011, Stephen J. Johnson, Deputy Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (“Deputy Commissioner”), hereby makes the following Decision and Order:

Pursuant to the Insurance Holding Companies Act and in consideration of the documents, presentations and reports received, as well as other inquiries and studies as permitted by law, the Deputy Commissioner hereby makes the following findings of fact:

FINDINGS OF FACT

Identity of the Parties

1. Elizabethtown Insurance Company (“EIC”) is a domestic stock property insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with its principal place of business in Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania.
2. Elizabethtown Group Holdings, Inc. (“Holdings”) is an insurance holding company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with its principal place of business in Elizabethtown, Pennsylvania.

3. FHA Holding Company (“FHA”) is a business corporation organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with its principal place of business in Exton, Pennsylvania. FHA directly holds 100% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of Holdings.
4. Mutual Fire, Marine & Inland Insurance Company (“Mutual Fire”) is a domestic mutual casualty insurance company organized under the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with its principal place of business in Exton, Pennsylvania. Mutual Fire directly holds 100% of the issued and outstanding capital stock of EIC and FHA.
5. Mutual Fire is the sole ultimate controlling person of EIC.

Filing of the Application

6. On July 6, 2011, the Insurance Department of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (“Department”) received an initial request (which together with all material received subsequently is collectively referenced as “Application”) from Mutual Fire for approval to effectuate a plan of reorganization of the holding company system that includes EIC.
7. The Insurance Holding Companies Act, Article XIV of the Insurance Company Law of 1921, Act of May 17, 1921, P.L. 682, as amended, 40 P.S. §§991.1401 et seq. (“Insurance Holding Companies Act”), provides that all transactions affecting the control of a domestic insurer must be filed with the Department for approval or disapproval.
8. The Application was filed pursuant to Section 1402 of the Insurance Holding Companies Act.
9. Section 1402(g) of the Insurance Holding Companies Act provides for the exemption from the requirements of Section 1402(b) if the transaction:
 - a. does not have the effect of changing or influencing the control of a domestic insurer, or
 - b. is otherwise not comprehended within the purposes of the section.

The Transaction

10. As described in the Application, Mutual Fire proposes to transfer the capital stock of EIC to Holdings.
11. As described in the Application, Holdings would directly hold EIC’s capital stock currently held by Mutual Fire.

12. As described in the Application, Holdings would continue to be controlled by Mutual Fire.
13. As described in the Application, Mutual Fire would continue to be the sole ultimate controlling person of EIC after the contemplated transactions.
14. The Deputy Commissioner finds that the transactions described in the Application would not have the effect of changing or influencing the control of a domestic insurer.
15. If any of the above Findings of Fact are determined to be Conclusions of Law, they shall be incorporated in the Conclusions of Law as if fully set forth therein.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

1. Under Section 1402 of the Insurance Holding Companies Act, the Department has jurisdiction to review and approve the acquisition of controlling securities of a domestic insurer if, after consummation thereof, the acquiring person would be in control of the domestic insurer.
2. The Deputy Commissioner has jurisdiction over the parties and subject matter of this proceeding.
3. The Application was properly filed pursuant to and in accordance with Section 1402(g) of the Insurance Holding Companies Act.
4. The instant transaction is not being contemplated to change or influence the ultimate control of EIC, and, therefore, is exempt from the requirements of Section 1402(b) of the Insurance Holding Companies Act.
5. If any of the above Conclusions of Law are determined to be Findings of Fact, they shall be incorporated in the Findings of Fact as if fully set forth therein.
