Important Information about Your Continuation Coverage Rights:

What is continuation coverage, also known as Pennsylvania Mini COBRA?

Pennsylvania law requires this group health insurance coverage give employees and their families the opportunity to continue their coverage for up to nine months when there is a “qualifying event” that would result in a loss of coverage under an employer’s plan. Depending on the type of qualifying event, covered employees and eligible dependents may include the employee (or retired employee) covered under the group health plan, the covered employee’s spouse and the dependent children of the covered employee.

Continuation coverage is the same coverage, without interruption, that the Plan gives to other participants or beneficiaries under the Plan who are not receiving continuation coverage. Each qualified beneficiary who elects continuation coverage will have the same rights under the Plan as other participants or beneficiaries covered under the Plan.

Is there an alternative to PA Mini COBRA?

You may also want to consider purchasing coverage through the Marketplace. The Marketplace is a website where a person or family may shop for coverage; if qualified, you can get help paying premiums and/or meeting cost sharing responsibilities (i.e. co-pays, deductibles, and co-insurance). Learn more by visiting healthcare.gov.

Who is eligible for Mini-COBRA continuation coverage, and how long will the coverage last?

Employees and eligible dependents who have been continuously insured under the group policy or for similar benefits under any group policy which it replaced, for the three consecutive months ending with the employee’s termination by a qualifying event. Continuation coverage is not available if:

1. the employee or eligible dependent is eligible for coverage under Medicare;
2. the employee or eligible dependent fails to verify that he is ineligible for employer-based group health insurance as an eligible dependent;

or

3. the employee or eligible dependent is, or could be covered by any other insured or uninsured arrangements that provides hospital, surgical or major medical coverage for individuals in a group and under which the person was not covered immediately prior to the termination of the employee’s group coverage (excluding Medicaid and CHIP – the Children’s Health Insurance Program).

Coverage may be continued for up to nine (9) months. However, if any of these three events happens after continuation coverage has begun, eligibility for coverage ends, and the employee or eligible dependent is required to provide written notice to the administrator within fourteen (14) days that coverage should not occur.

In addition, continuation coverage will end:

1. if the employee or eligible dependent fails to make timely payment of a required premium contribution;
2. the group coverage is terminated.
How can you elect continuation coverage?

To elect continuation coverage, each covered employee or eligible dependent must complete the Continuation Coverage Election Form and furnish it according to the directions on the Form. Unless an eligible dependent’s election otherwise specifies, election of continuation coverage by an eligible dependent will be deemed an election of continuation coverage on behalf of any other eligible dependent who would lose coverage by reason of the qualifying event.

How much does continuation coverage cost?

Continuation coverage will cost [enter amount each qualified beneficiary will be required to pay for each option per month of coverage and any other permitted coverage periods – not more than 105% of the group rate of the insurance being continued on the due date of each payment]. You do not have to send any payment with the Continuation Coverage Election Form.
