EXTENSION OF DEADLINES DUE TO COVID-19 VIRUS

Extension of Deadline to File an Objection to a Notice of Determination

Due to the COVID-19 virus, the Pennsylvania Courts have issued orders which close the Courts to the general public and effectively extend the deadline for filing an objection to a Notice of Determination for thirty (30) days. This means that the deadline for filing any objection to a Notice of Determination would be ninety (90) days from the date stated on the Notice of Determination. For updates on further extensions, if any, please check the Commonwealth Court website at
