

2. PCC is hereby placed in rehabilitation pursuant to the provisions of Article V of the Insurance Department Act, supra.

3. M. Diane Koken, Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, is, and her successors in office are, hereby appointed Rehabilitator of PCC, directed to take immediate possession of its property, business and affairs as Rehabilitator pursuant to the provisions of Article V of the Insurance Department Act, supra, and to take such action as the nature of this case and the interests of the policyholders, creditors, or the public may require.

4. The Rehabilitator shall have full powers and authority given the Rehabilitator under Article V of the Insurance Department Act, supra, and under provisions of all other applicable laws, as are reasonable and necessary to fulfill the duties and responsibilities of the Rehabilitator under Article V of the Insurance Department Act, supra, and under this Order.

ASSETS OF THE ESTATE

5. As provided in Section 515(c) of Article V of the Insurance Department Act, supra, as Rehabilitator, the Commissioner is hereby directed to take possession of the assets, contracts and rights of action of PCC, of whatever nature and wherever located, whether held directly or indirectly. According to Section 515(c), supra, “the filing or recording of this Order with the clerk of the Commonwealth Court or recorder of deeds of the county in which the principal business of PCC is conducted, or the county in which its principal office or place of business is located, shall impart the same notice as a deed, bill of sale or other evidence of title duly filed or recorded with that recorder of deeds would have imparted.”

6. All banks, investment bankers, or other companies, entities, or persons having in their possession assets which are, or may be, the property of PCC are hereby ordered to advise the Rehabilitator, and any agents and attorneys for the Rehabilitator (collectively, the “Rehabilitator”) immediately of such assets and to identify such assets for the Rehabilitator, and are further ordered not to disburse, convey, transfer, pledge, assign, hypothecate, encumber or in any manner dispose of such assets without the prior written consent of, or unless directed in writing by, the Rehabilitator. Any checks or other payments which have, as of the date of this Order, been actually mailed or actually delivered to the payee will, provided same are otherwise proper and in compliance with relevant law, be honored without prejudice to the rights of the Rehabilitator regarding recoupment from the recipient. Such persons and entities, and all other persons and entities, are enjoined from disposing of or destroying any records pertaining to any business transactions between PCC and banks, brokerage houses or other persons or companies having done business with PCC or having in their possession assets, which are, or were, the property of PCC.

7. All insurance agents, brokers or other persons having sold policies of insurance and/or collected premiums on behalf of PCC shall account for all earned premiums and commissions and shall account for and pay all premiums and commissions unearned due to policies canceled in the normal course of business, directly to the Rehabilitator at the offices of PCC within 30 days of the date of this Order, or the date of receipt, whichever is later, or appear before this Court to show good cause as to why they should not be required to account to the Rehabilitator. No insurance agent, broker, or other person shall use premium monies owed to PCC for any purpose other than payment to the Rehabilitator. Such insurance agents, brokers or other persons may be held in contempt of Court for violation of the provisions of this Order.

8. Only if requested by the Rehabilitator, all attorneys employed or retained by PCC as of the date of this Order shall, within 30 days of such request, report to the Rehabilitator the name, company claim number, if applicable, and status of each case or matter they are handling on behalf of PCC.

9. At the request of the Rehabilitator, any company providing telephone service to PCC shall provide new telephone numbers and refer calls from the numbers presently assigned to PCC to any such new numbers and perform any other changes necessary to the conduct of the Rehabilitation of PCC.

10. Any premium finance company which has entered into a contract to finance a policy which has been issued by PCC shall pay the premium owed to PCC directly to the Rehabilitator at the offices of PCC.

11. The United States Postal Service is requested to provide any information requested regarding PCC and to handle future deliveries of PCC mail, as directed by the Rehabilitator.

12. Any entity furnishing water, electric, sewage, garbage or trash removal services to PCC shall maintain such services and transfer any such accounts to the Rehabilitator as of the date of this Order, unless instructed to the contrary by the Rehabilitator.

13. Any entity furnishing claims processing or data processing services to PCC shall maintain such services and transfer any such accounts to the Rehabilitator as of the date of this Order, unless instructed to the contrary by the Rehabilitator.

14. Any entity which has custody or control of any data processing information and records including, but not limited to, source documents, all types of electronically stored information, master tapes or any other recorded information relating to PCC, shall transfer, at the request of the Rehabilitator, custody and control of such records to the Rehabilitator. Any such entity may be held in contempt of Court for violation of the provisions of this Order.

15. At the request of the Rehabilitator, PCC, its officers, directors, trustees, employees, agents and attorneys are hereby ordered to deliver to the Rehabilitator keys or access codes to the premises where PCC conducts its business and to any safe deposit boxes, and to advise the Rehabilitator of the combinations or access codes of any safes or safe keeping devices of PCC.

16. PCC, its officers, directors, trustees, employees, agents and attorneys are hereby ordered to identify for the Rehabilitator all of the assets, books, records, files, credit cards, or other property of PCC, to tender or make readily available to the Rehabilitator, at the Rehabilitator's request, all of the foregoing, and to advise and cooperate with the Rehabilitator in identifying and locating any of PCC's assets.

17. Except for policies or contracts of insurance, the Rehabilitator, in her discretion, may affirm or disavow any executory contracts to which PCC is a party. The entry of this Order of Rehabilitation shall not constitute an anticipatory breach of any such contracts.

EXPENSES, POLICYHOLDER AND CERTIFICATE CLAIMS,
OTHER PAYMENTS AND LAWSUITS

18. The Rehabilitator may, in her discretion, pay expenses incurred in the ordinary course of PCC's business in rehabilitation and may, in her discretion, pay the actual, reasonable, and necessary costs of preserving or recovering the assets of PCC and the costs of goods and services provided to PCC's estate. Such costs shall include but not be limited to: (a) reasonable professional fees for accountants, actuaries, attorneys and consultants with other expertise retained by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania Insurance Department ("Department"), the Commissioner or the Rehabilitator to perform services relating to the Rehabilitation of PCC or the preparation, implementation, or operation of a rehabilitation plan; (b) compensation and other costs related to representatives and employees of PCC; and (c) a reasonable allocation of costs and expenses associated with time spent by Department personnel in connection with the rehabilitation of PCC.

19. In the event that this Court issues an order appointing the Insurance Commissioner of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as liquidator of PCC, actual, reasonable and necessary costs of preserving or recovering assets of PCC and the costs of goods or services provided to and approved by PCC (In Rehabilitation), under paragraph 18 of this Order, during the period of Rehabilitation will be treated as "costs and expenses of administration," pursuant to Section 544 of the Insurance Department Act of 1921, supra, 40 P.S. §221.44.

20. The Rehabilitator may, in her discretion, pay claims for losses, in whole or in part, under policies and contracts of insurance and loss adjustment expenses as identified in Section 544(b) of the Insurance Department Act, supra, 40 P.S. §221.44(b). Such discretion of the Rehabilitator shall include the discretion not to pay bad faith claims or claims for extra-contractual charges or damages.

21. No payments of any type shall be made to any claimants of PCC as identified in Section 544(c) through (i) of the Insurance Department Act of 1921, supra, 40 P.S. §221.44(c) through (i), except in the discretion of the Rehabilitator.

22. All persons, in the Commonwealth or elsewhere, are enjoined and restrained from: (a) instituting or further prosecuting any action in law or equity against PCC or the Rehabilitator; (b) obtaining preferences, judgments, attachments, garnishments or liens, including obtaining collateral in any litigation, mediation, or arbitration involving PCC, the Rehabilitator, or PCC's assets and property; (c) levying any execution process against PCC, the Rehabilitator or PCC's assets and property in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or elsewhere; and (d) making any assessments or indirectly collecting such assessments by setting them off against amounts otherwise payable to PCC.

23. Pursuant to Section 221.15(c) of the Insurance Department Act of 1921, supra, 40 P.S. §221.15(c), the Rehabilitator is specifically authorized, in her sole discretion, to enter into agreements to and otherwise take possession of the statutory deposits held by any state or territory and to do all things necessary to manage and apply the deposits in accordance with any such agreements. PCC shall not post additional statutory security deposits in any state or territory.

24 All actions currently pending against PCC in the Courts of the Commonwealth or elsewhere are hereby stayed. The Rehabilitator, in her sole discretion, may petition this Court to enter a stay of any pending or future actions against PCC's policyholders, in the Courts of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or elsewhere, where the interests of PCC's estate in rehabilitation so require.

25. No judgment or order against PCC or an insured of PCC entered after the date of filing of the Petition for Rehabilitation and no judgment or order against PCC or an insured of PCC entered at any time by default or by collusion need be considered as evidence of liability or quantum of damages by the Rehabilitator.

REINSURANCE

26. The amounts recoverable by the Rehabilitator from any reinsurer of PCC shall not be reduced as a result of this rehabilitation proceeding or by reason of any partial payment or distribution on a reinsured policy, contract or claim, and each such reinsurer of PCC is without first obtaining leave of Court, hereby enjoined and restrained from terminating, canceling, failing to extend or renew, or reducing or changing coverage under any reinsurance policy or contract with PCC. The Rehabilitator may terminate or rescind any contract with a reinsurer or reinsurers that is contrary to the best interests of the estate in rehabilitation.

NEW OR RENEWAL BUSINESS

27. The Rehabilitator is authorized to accept or reject new, existing, or renewal business. In implementing this paragraph, the Rehabilitator shall have the discretion to, inter alia, accept or reject new, existing or renewal business, write renewal business for time periods less than one year, write contractually required tail coverage for time periods less than one year, and cancel existing business or contractually required tail coverage upon reasonable notice.

INJUNCTION AGAINST INTERFERING WITH REHABILITATION

28. Until further order of this Court, all persons, corporations, partnerships, associations, counsel, custodians, and all other entities, wherever located, are hereby enjoined and restrained from interfering in any manner with the Rehabilitator's possession and rights to the assets and property of PCC and from interfering in any manner with the conduct of the rehabilitation of PCC. Those persons, corporations, partnerships, associations, counsel, custodians, and all other entities are hereby enjoined and restrained from wasting, transferring, selling, concealing, terminating, canceling, destroying, disbursing, disposing of, or assigning any assets, contracts, causes of action, funds, records, investigative materials, or other property of any nature of PCC.

INJUNCTION AGAINST ACTIONS BY SECURED CREDITORS

29. All secured creditors or parties, pledgees, lienholders, collateral holders or other persons claiming secured, priority or preferred interests in any property or assets of PCC are hereby enjoined from taking any steps whatsoever to transfer, sell, assign, encumber, attach, dispose of, or exercise, purported rights in or against any property or assets of PCC.

NOT A DECLARATION OF INSOLVENCY

30. This Order shall not be deemed a finding or declaration of insolvency such as would activate the provisions of the Pennsylvania Property and Casualty Insurance Guaranty Act, 40 P.S. §§991.1801-991.1820, or the provisions of similar acts of any other state or territory.

JURISDICTION

31. This Court shall retain jurisdiction for all purposes necessary to effectuate and enforce this Order.
