- (f) Freberg Environmental confirmed that it did not have a Pennsylvania surplus lines license, although it possessed a Pennsylvania non-resident producer license.
- (g) On February 28, 2005, Respondent confirmed that it represented Meiser & Earl to Respondent in the procurement of the surplus lines policy, although it and its individual producer, Jana Zuerner, were not licensed in Pennsylvania as producers.
- (h) Respondent confirmed that it advised Meiser & Earl to pay the surplus lines taxes to the Pennsylvania Department of Revenue, as procured independent of an insurance producer.
